Scientists Try to Find Why Vanguard Fell Back to Earth

Satellite Flies 2,000 Miles But Fails to Go Into Orbit

Cape Canaveral, Fla. — Navy scientists searched tirelessly today for a technical "bug" that brought their second basketball-sized satellite plunging to earth after a brief flight into space. Blasted aloft by the Vanguard rocket shortly before midnight, the 20-inch ball flew 2,000 miles out in an arc-like course, then hurtled back into the atmosphere. For the moment the navy was unable to say what caused the satellite to fall after what appeared to be a perfect launch toward an orbit around the earth.

Shocks Scientists Meager information radioed back by the satellite before it went silent eventually may tell why it wound up just like the first basketball "moon"—at the bottom of the Atlantic ocean. Only a few flaming fragments may have hit the sea, however. In all likelihood, said Dr. Richard W. Porter, chairman of the Vanguard satellite panel, most of the satellite was consumed by friction heat in its dive to oblivion. First word that the launch had failed came as a shock to scientists here. From the moment the Vanguard leaped out of a white-hot pool of fire up into a black

$38.3 Billion New Cash Aim For Defense

House Group Seeks Speedup in Missile, Anti-Sub Programs

Washington — The house appropriations committee today ordered a speedup in missile and anti-submarine warfare programs. It did so in recommending $38.310,561,000 in new cash for defense in the coming fiscal year. Approving $113,614,000 more than the defense department had asked, the committee vetoed administration plans to reduce the strength of the national guard, the army reserves and the marine corps. It also provided funds for nine new missile-launching nuclear submarines instead of the five proposed by President Eisenhower.

Fund for Research The committee allotted $2,732,935,000 for research and development, including $510 million for space research. All the recommendations are subject to house action next week. Here are the amounts the committee recommended, for the fiscal years starting next July 1, for the inter-service activities, army, navy and air force, compared with funds appropriated this year: Service $796,900,000 and $682,375,000; army $8,617,626,000 and $7,264,550,000; navy $11,042,210,000 and $10,042,210,000.

3 Pilots Die in Collision of Jets

Clovis, N. M. — Three pilots died yesterday in the collision of two Super Sabre jets over Cannon Air Force base. A 2-seater F100F and a single seat F100D, crashed while the F100F was making an emergency landing. The dead were identified by the air force as Capt. William R. Gilmore, 30, Interlaken, N. Y.; Lt. William R. Jarmon, 24, North Arlington, Va., and Lt. Leslie Ikeda, 28, Honolulu. Gilmore and Jarmon were in the 2-seater. The base said the F100F was at a "pretty low altitude" making an emergency landing approach because of radio failure when the collision took place.

Many Observers Think President Must Offer Premiership to General

Paris — About 30,000 leftist demonstrators marched through Paris today to protest a return of Gen. Charles de Gaulle to power. At almost the same time the general left his country home and sped toward the capital. A meeting of three political leaders with President Rene

Heroes' Bodies Now in Capitol

Lie in State Until Final Ceremonies On Memorial Day

Washington — The unknowns of two wars were brought to the capitol today to receive their country's homage. The bodies of the nameless ones of World War II and Korea were borne in ceremony from the destroyer which brought them home, to the capitol where they will lie in state until the final honors of Memorial day. Vice President Nixon and other dignitaries stood at reverent attention as the flag-draped coffins were placed side by side in the rotunda. The public was welcome to file by the bronze caskets and hundreds of spectators were on hand when they arrived at the capitol. A composite guard of honor from the army, navy and air force escorted the black hearses in the slow funeral procession from the naval gun factory. The caskets occupied the place of honor in the capitol where Gen. John J. Pershing and many another dignitary, as well as the unknown soldier of World War I, have lain in state. The bodies were brought ashore from the destroyer Blandy as the Navy band played "Nearer My God to Thee" and military officials headed by Secretary of Defense Neil McElroy stood rigid in silence. In the rotunda, surrounded by statues of famous Americans of the past, both Nixon and Speaker of the House Sam Rayburn (D - Texas) placed wreaths on the coffins. Present also were other high government officials and members of the diplomatic corps.

Alaska Statehood Backers Win Test

Washington — House backers of statehood for Alaska won a major victory today by whipping 199-174 a motion to pigeonhole their bill. But doubt still clouded its eventual fate. Strategists in the maneuvering over the measure said the outcome on a final vote — possibly to be taken late today — could hinge on the positions taken by members absent on the pigeonholing test and who might vote on the question of passage.

Recession Largely Spent, Ike Thinks

Turns Thumbs Down on Tax Cut; Says He Likes De Gaulle

Washington — President Eisenhower said today he believes the recession has largely spent itself. America is weathering it well, he told a news conference at which he explained his stand against tax cuts. Eisenhower said the current economic situation does not warrant any reductions that would create further deficit spending. Though he said he thinks the recession has largely spent its force, the president declined to predict when there will be a business upturn and full employment again. He said he is no prophet. Loaded Question The first question to Eisenhower was a request that he explain why he came out earlier this week against any general tax cut—any, as the reporter put it, anti-recession reduction. Eisenhower said it looked to him as though the newsmen was asking a loaded question. The president said he is not sure that any tax cut could be pictured as an anti-recession move. As he has done many times in the past, the president said the tax situation has been a matter for careful and intense study. And, he went on, he finally decided that as of now the economic situation does not warrant any reductions beyond already proposed relief for small business. Eisenhower also dealt with these other matters: At the outset of the conference the president said the situations in crisis ridden France and Lebanon are too delicate for him to discuss, so he was asking that those matters be as he put it, taken off the question list. Friend of De Gaulle But in response to a question later he did say he happens to be one of those people who liked Gen. Charles de Gaulle when he knew him during and after World War II. Eisenhower said he has had long and friendly contacts with De Gaulle, and recalled a dinner session at the time Eisenhower was leaving Europe as supreme commander, World War II. At that time, Eisenhower said, he had a long talk with

Fox Cities Have 111,438 People

Audit Bureau of Circulations Accepts Latest Estimate

Latest verified estimates place the population of the Fox Cities at 111,438. The Audit Bureau of Circulations, recognized authority on market definitions, and between census population estimates, notified the Post-Crescent today it has accepted that figure, which represents an increase of 4,768, or 4.3 per cent, over the 106,670 estimate of 1956. and a gain of 26,764, or 31.6 per cent, over the official 84,674 population as determined by the last federal census in 1950. Substantiating data justifying the increased estimate was provided through a formula developed in the Post-Crescent's annual Consumer Buying Habit Study. The formula has been verified and accepted by the Audit Bureau of Circulations, Sales Management magazine and Standard Rate and Data Service, marketing publication. The Fox Cities thus maintain their position as the third largest metropolitan market area in Wisconsin. Only Milwaukee and Madison are larger. The Fox Cities are comprised of Appleton, Neenah, Menasha, Kaukauna, Kimberly, Little Chute and Combined Locks and urbanized portions of the towns of Neenah, Menasha, Grand Chute, Vandenbrook, Buchanan and Harrison.

Corporate and Excise Levies Extension Voted

Washington — A one-year extension of corporate income and excise taxes at present rates was voted today by the house ways and means committee. The tax extension bill was sent to the house for probable action next week by a 21-2 vote. The committee overwhelmingly rejected a proposal to give auto makers special tax relief. A 19-2 vote turned down an amendment by Rep. Thaddeus M. Machrowicz (D-Mich) to permit the present 10 per cent excise tax on new automobiles to drop to 7 per cent July 1. The other member voting with Machrowicz was Rep. Noah Mason (R-Ill.). Machrowicz told newsmen he viewed the action as probably closing the door to any tax reductions this year, but that he would try to obtain an auto excise tax cut by separate legislation.

2 Workmen Burned In Marshfield Fire

Marshfield — Two workmen were burned, one critically, Tuesday night when a flash fire climaxed their search for a gas smell in the basement of the new General Telephone Co. exchange building under construction here. Hospitalized were Robert Rux, 21, and Edward Kowalk, 23. Rux suffered extensive second degree burns to his face, arms and back. Kowalk was less seriously hurt. When the two arrived they found 100 cars racing on the landing strips. The policemen tried to break it up, but said for every car they chased at least three more wheeled onto the field and tore down the strips. An SOS brought Chief Walton, who declared a state of emergency. By then, he said, a thousand teenagers were whipping up and down the runways.

Tear Gas Used to End Drag Race

Camden, N. J. — Police and firemen, using hoses and tear gas, broke up a rally of 2,000 drag racers at the old Central airport in nearby Pennsauken township last night. Some police cars were stoned before calm was restored. Russell Walton, township police chief, said more and more drag racers have been using the field in the last week or so, and that he was tipped off yesterday they would be out in force. He assigned two men to patrol the area. When the two arrived they found 100 cars racing on the landing strips. The policemen tried to break it up, but said for every car they chased at least three more wheeled onto the field and tore down the strips. An SOS brought Chief Walton, who declared a state of emergency. By then, he said, a thousand teenagers were whipping up and down the runways.

Soviet Union Delays Aid to Yugoslavia In Economic Squeeze

Belgrade — The Soviet Union put the economic squeeze on Yugoslavia today by postponing for five years a credit arrangement between the two countries. The decision was announced by the official news agency Tanjug. It came as no surprise, since Yugoslav-Soviet relations have been deteriorating in recent weeks. The Soviet Union in two agreements had promised economic credits to Yugoslavia amounting to $250 million. This amount was to be used for building an aluminum plant in Montenegro and other industrial projects. Only a small part of the credit was for cash loans and consumer goods.

Caudle, Connelly Make Pleas for Probation

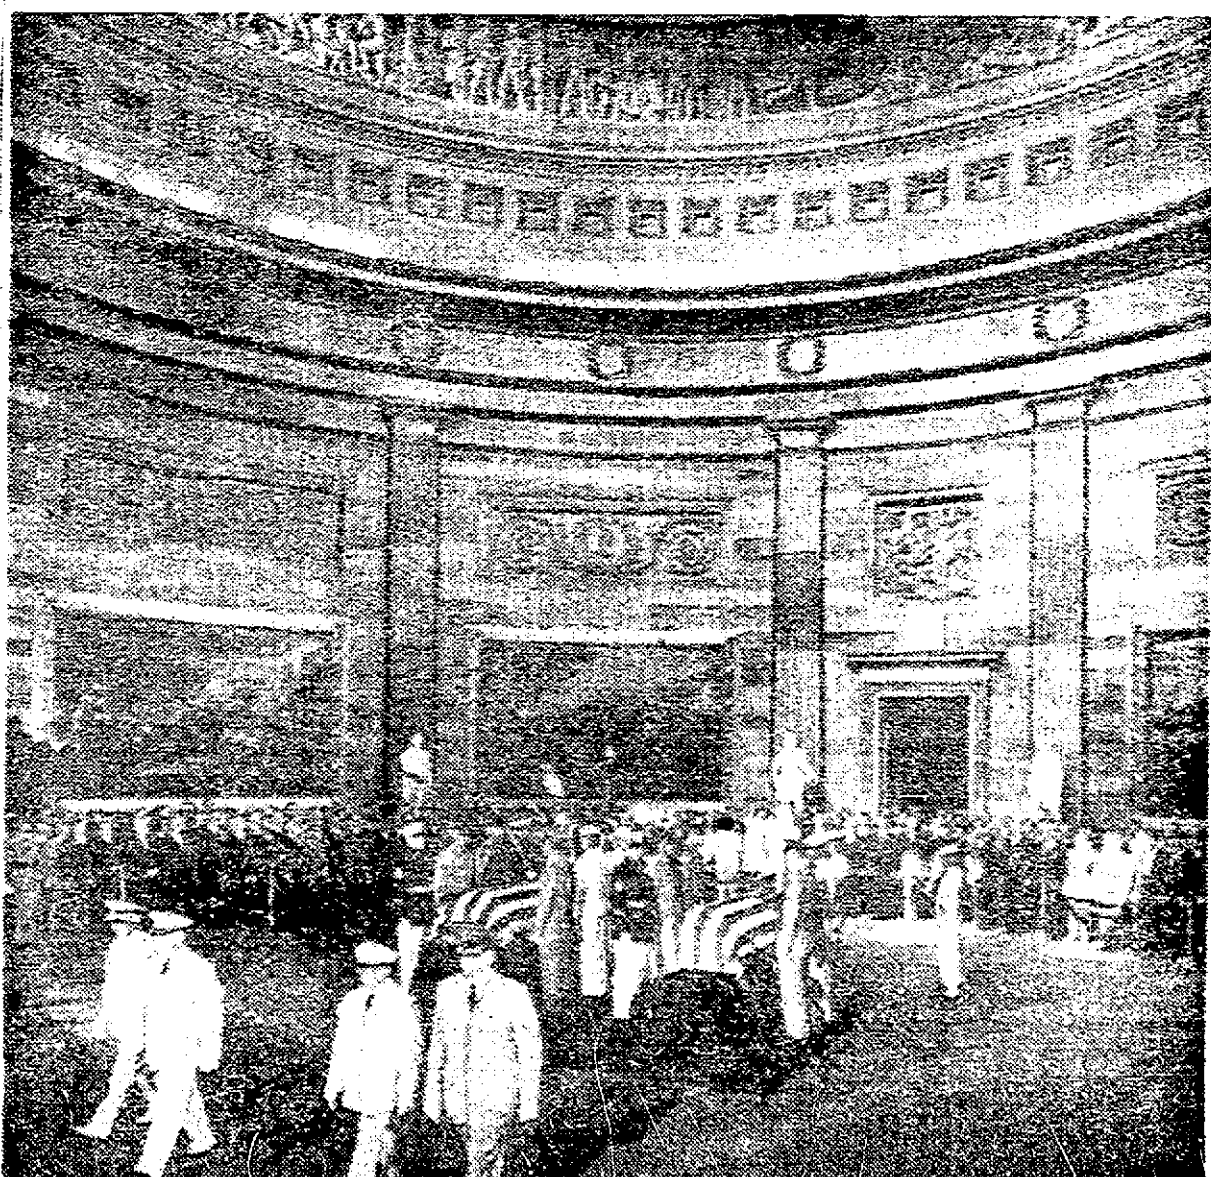

St. Louis — P. T. Lamar Caudle and Matthew J. Connelly, former Truman administration officials, have asked for probation or reduction of their prison sentences. Both were convicted in June of 1956 by a U. S. district court. They were sentenced to two years in prison for conspiracy in an income tax case. ### $290,000 in Coins Found Hidden In Home of Deceased Texas Oilman

Houston, Texas — The late James M. West, multi-millionaire rancher - oilman who liked to give away silver dollars, left an estimated $290,000 in cash in a hidden cellar of his mansion here. Atty. Robert H. Parsley said the existence of the hidden treasure, in silver dollars and smaller coins, had been kept secret for fear of prowlers in the West home. He said executors of West's estate will meet today to authorize a statement. Count Not Completed An armored car was reported carrying the money to the Texas National bank, where it was piled 5 feet high in an area of 8 by 10 feet in a counting room. Although the counting of the money began several days ago, it has not been completed. One source estimated that the final count may exceed $290,000. The Houston Post said that 30,000 of the silver dollars were wrapped in tin foil with the rolls ranging from 12 to 18 inches long. Although West inherited money, he was said to have multiplified his estate many times through investments and business enterprises. He frequently figured in news stories, but did not like publicity. Avoided Publicity "My friends know what kind many. In addition to handing of man I am," he once said in out silver dollars. West frequently rode night patrol with Houston policemen. His home many times included 41 Cadillacs, which his Alice Sneed West, 57, and two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Lloyd, Houston, and Mrs. Margaret Lloyd, Midland, Texas. Guards were reported to have crawled under the house to reach the hidden cellar where the money was found in cotton bags, paper sacks, barrels and was not immediately made clear. The U. S. Supreme court last week refused for the second time to act on their appeals.

Indonesia Says Rebel Forces Handed Defeat

American Civilian Flying for Rebels Reported Captured

Jakarta, Indonesia — P — The Indonesian army command today claimed its forces have recaptured Parigi, in the central Celebes, killed 30 rebels and captured large quantities of arms.

The communique added that a loyalist forces were attacking Djailolo, on Halmahera island, and had killed 70 rebel defenders.

The communique made no mention of the situation at Gorontalo, in the north Celebes, which the rebels claimed to have recaptured last week after killing 400 loyalist troops.

The air force gave newsmen a preview of the first MIG and Ilyushin planes delivered to the Sukarno government by Iron Curtain countries. Reporters watched two MIG jet trainers from Czechoslovakia take off from a Jakarta airfield and went for a ride in an Ilyushin converted transport.

An air force spokesman said the Ilyushins cost $250,000 each, payable over 10 years compared to the 3-year period demanded by western nations.

Singer, Child Bride In U. S.; Denies He Was Hooted Out of England

New York — P — Rock 'n' roll warbler Jerry Lee Lewis flew home from Britain today, nonchalantly chewing gum and denying he was hooted out of England because of his marriage to a 13-year-old girl. He maintained that he was very well treated there.

"Yes, sir, we had a very good reception in England," asserted the seemingly unperturbed 22-year-old singer as he stepped off a plane with his Tennessee bride. She also was chewing gum but appeared far less at ease than her husband.

"People treated us very nice," added Lewis. But he went on to acknowledge that his trip had been curtailed, and of news stories and editorials in the British press he said: "Some were real nice, and some were real crummy."

was reported undergoing medical treatment in Jakarta.

The pilot, identified as Allen Lawrence Pope, 30, of Miami, fractured a thigh when he bailed out near Ambon island and landed in a coconut tree.

Great Regret
Pope has been employed by the Civil Air transport (CAT) line which has headquarters on Formosa. The airline said Pope had been on leave without pay since April and it didn't know what he had been doing.

American Ambassador Howard P. Jones in an official statement expressed great regret that "a private American citizen has been involved as a paid soldier of fortune serving with the rebel forces." Jones said he is fully confident, however, that the incident will not "affect continuing progress" toward improved relations between Indonesia and the United States.

Two Major House Tests Hold Key to Alaskan Statehood This Year

Adoption of Either Motion Could Sidetrack Bill Rest of Session

Washington — P — Alaska's hope for statehood this year hinged today on two major house tests, either of which could kill its chances.

The first test was scheduled on a preferential motion by Rep. Walter Rogers (D-Texas) to send a statehood bill back to the house insular affairs committee where it began.

If unsuccessful in this, opponents then could demand a roll call vote on the action by which the house voted tentatively yesterday, 11-106, to kill the bill technically, to strike its enactment clause.

Sidetrack Bill
Either motion, if adopted, has the effect of sidetracking any further consideration of the bill at this session. Should statehood advocates survive these votes, the house then would resume consideration of amendments to the bill.

Although opponents predicted in advance of today's vote they would hold their majority, Alaska's advocates expressed hope they could pick up support in a recorded roll call vote from among the 180 house members not voting yesterday.

House acceptance of the motion to strike the bill's enactment clause closed off further consideration Tuesday of pending amendments to reduce the size of land grants to which Alaska would be entitled under statehood.

Land Grant
Pending then were a proposal by Rep. William A. Dawson (R-Utah) to reduce a 182-million acre land grant to 102,550,000 acres, and a substitute by Rogers to pare the grant still further to 21 million acres. Dawson's amendment also would have reduced from 50 years to 25 the length of time in which Alaska could select an additional 400,000 acres of forest lands.

The house rejected two amendments proposed by Rep. Craig Hosmer (R-Calif.) to delay the effective date of statehood. One of these would have required Alaska to attain a permanent population of 250,000 persons, nearly double the 1950 census total, before its admission. The other would have required an amendment to the proposed state's constitution precluding any future legalization of gambling.

Fond du Lac Given Go-Ahead on Lake Water Pipe Plans

Fond du Lac — P — The city government was told by the circuit court Tuesday to go ahead with its plans to increase its water supply by piping water from Lake Winnebago.

Circuit Judge Bruce Beilfuss, Neillsville, dismissed the objections of the Citizens Municipal Government League, which sought a review of the public service commission order authorizing the city to build the pipeline.

Opponents of the lake water plan argued it would be more economical for the city to increase its system of wells than to build a pipeline. Since the PSC granted the authority last Dec. 31, the city had let tentative bids totaling $2,444,289 for building a 4-mile pipeline into the lake. However, the city council held up definition of the pipeline action pending the settlement of the Fox Cities.

Pro-Western Party to Keep Rule in Italy

Monarchists Lose Heavily in Vote For Parliament

Rome — P — Final election returns made plain today the pro-western christian democrats will continue to govern Italy, either in coalition with the minor center parties or with their support.

The balloting Sunday and Monday for a new parliament left the political picture about the same. The center and extreme left made small gains. The monarchists lost heavily and the fascists dropped slightly.

When the new parliament meets June 12, the christian democrats will be asked again to form a government. They have ruled since World War II.

May Step Down
Premier Adone Zoli is expected to step down and give christian democrat leader Amintore Fanfani a chance to become premier a second time. He held the job for 22 days in 1951. Zoli, a senator, got the job a year ago because he was a less controversial figure than the party leader.

The christian democrats took 273 seats in the dominant 536-member chamber of deputies, or 26 short of a bare majority. But they can count for support on most issues from the other center parties, whose 46 seats could give the government a safe margin of at least 42.

The standing of the parties in the chamber will be: christian democrats 273, a gain of 11; liberals 16, up 2; social democrats 23, up 4; republicans 7, up 2; south tyrol and aosta parties 3 (no change); communists 140, a loss of 3; socialists 84, a gain of 9; monarchists 23 down 17; msi (fascists) 25, down 4; others 2.

First Missile Warship Set for Commissioning

Philadelphia — P — The navy commissions its first "missile warship" today, a cruiser that carries an atomic weapon capable of destroying unseen planes or surface vessels more than 65 miles away.

The cruiser Galveston, freshly painted and its brass shining, officially goes into service 13 years after it was launched. Sponsoring the commissioning is Mrs. Clark W. Thompson of Galveston, wife of a Democratic congressman from Texas' ninth district.

Deadly Missile
Principal armament of this first of the navy's new fleet of missile light cruisers is the deadly talos, a 20-foot, long rocket-shaped missile that can reach into the stratosphere for a kill. It too was 13 years in the making. Two powerful launchers were on public view for the first time today.

The ten-and-a-half talos was produced by the Bendix Aviation corporation under a $27 million contract. It is powered by a 40,000 horsepower ramjet travels faster than a bullet farther than the biggest navy guns and higher than any bomber.

It can be fired in less than a minute after the target is spotted on radar, bearing either a nuclear or conventional warhead.

The Galveston — the navy's second ship to be named for the Texas city—was started at the William Cramp and Sons Shipbuilding company of Philadelphia in February 1944 and launched 14 months later before World War II ended.

Placed in Reserve
But construction of the 609-foot, 14,600-ton cruiser was suspended in June 1946 as part of America's post-war demobilization and she was never commissioned. A year later she was placed in reserve with the Atlantic fleet.

Conversion to a missile cruiser began 20 months ago. It will be completed by September for a shakedown cruise to the Caribbean.

There says Capt. John Barr "Collet" the Galveston's shipper the talos will be test-fired for the first time from the deck of a ship.

We anticipate nothing but deadly perfection," he adds.

Innocent Pleas Entered by Gas Firms, Officers

Milwaukee — P — Three major natural gas companies and their top officers pleaded innocent Tuesday to charges of conspiring to prevent a competitor from importing Canadian natural gas into Wisconsin, Minnesota and Illinois.

A federal grand jury last month returned criminal indictments naming the American Natural Gas company, Detroit, and its president, Ralph T. McElenny; the Northern Natural Gas Company of Omaha, and its president, John F. Merriam; and the People's Gas Light and Coke company, Chicago, and its former board chairman, James F. Oates, Jr., New York.

The indictments charged the firms and individuals conspiring in violation of federal anti-trust laws, to prevent Tennessee Gas Transmission company from gaining a share of the market in the three states.

Counsel for Oates said in U. S. District Court the defendants would ask bills of particulars relating to the court's jurisdiction and other matters. He said they reserved the right to file motions on the issues within 30 days.

American is the parent firm had let tentative bids totaling of the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line company and the Milwaukee Gas Light company. The Michigan-Wisconsin firm's up-nite action pending the settlement of the Fox Cities.

Voters Turn Proposal Into a 'Dead Issue'

Egremont, Mass. — This town of 851 residents has no where to bury its dead.

There is no room in either the Riverside or Town House Hill cemeteries, the town's two burial areas.

And on Saturday the voters defeated a proposal to purchase three acres of land for burial purposes.

Nutritious, Tasty
According to those running the program, its only objective is to feed children the best possible meal, taste and nutrition-wise, for the least amount of cost to the family. Supplemental government aid is utilized.

The federal government helps in several ways, it is pointed out. For every meal served with milk, the school is reimbursed 5 cents per plate. With- out milk, the reimbursement is 3 cents a plate.

Surplus commodities, such as tomatoes, grapefruit sections, rice, flour, dried milk, peas, green beans, dried eggs, cheese, lard, butter, cherries, peanut butter, peaches and some frozen hamburger also are utilized to cut costs.

Plenty of Food St. Joseph Lunch Program Big Operation

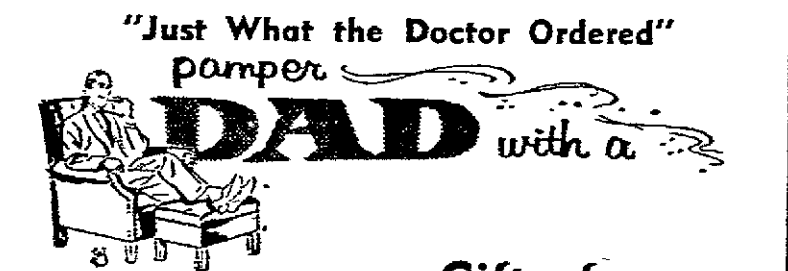

One hundred and ten pounds of hamburger, 180 pounds of potatoes, 95 buttered buns or 1,200 grilled cheese sandwiches go into one day's work in the St. Joseph school cafeteria.

When hundreds of hungry youngsters come swarming in to the cafeteria each noon hour, the cooks must be ready and those hundreds and hundreds of pounds of tastily prepared food constitute being ready.

The lunch program closes Thursday and workers, both paid and volunteer, will look back on another successful year when an average of 640 children were fed each day with 788 lining up on the peak day. The school's statistics show 11,496 meals were served in the peak month. In a 20-day serving month, an average of 1,800 free meals are consumed.

Scientists Try To Learn Why Satellite Failed

tion necessary to place it in orbit. Instead, it flew out in a wide arc, then fell back into the earth's atmosphere.

It was the fourth failure in five tries since the Vanguard rocket first was fired as a complete 3-stage vehicle.

The first Vanguard exploded four feet off its launching pad. The second blew apart 20,000 feet off the ground. The third launched Vanguard I, the 33-pound satellite now in orbit. The fourth fell into the sea.

By contrast, the army has a record of two successes in three tries with its Jupiter-C satellite launching rocket which hurled the two Explorers into orbit.

Last night's Vanguard launching appeared at the start to be perfect.

Within minutes, an optimistic navy announcement said the engines in all three stages of the rocket had fired in proper sequence.

Signals Cease

In quick succession thereafter, the satellite's signals were picked up at down-range listening posts in the Bahamas Islands and the British West Indies.

Then came a confusing silence.

In San Diego, Calif., where radio receptions brought first word that the United States' three other satellites were in orbit and had completed their first trips around the earth, listeners waited in vain.

Hours after the launching, a baffled Vanguard spokesman in Washington said "we honestly don't know" if the sphere went into orbit.

"We've had an abnormal flight," said Dr. Richard W. Porter, chairman of the Vanguard satellite panel.

There had been high optimism here until the continued silence at San Diego blasted all hope of a successful launching.

The potential satellite—small in size by Russian standards but big in scientific importance—made an impressive departure from earth in the nose of the 72-foot rocket.

Its mission was to determine how ultraviolet radiation from

Riot Feared in France As Coty Seeks Premier

state of emergency under which France is governed.

The politicians huddled in their headquarters awaiting the outcome of Coty's meetings with Mollat, independent Deputy Alphonse Puyat, and Paul Henri Teitgen, popular republican leader.

Three Major Persons

Mollat, Teitgen and Puyat are three of the real powers among the assembly's deputies. If they agree to De Gaulle, his return would be assured. The socialists already have said they would never support De Gaulle. Even this statement is taken with doubt in French politics, and the socialists are not deemed as united as they seem.

There were rumblings of discontent from the countryside. Two companies of security troops flown to Paris last week from Toulouse were flown back last night to meet threats from rightists there.

The local governor was reported to have complained to Paris that he was sitting on a box, with the De Gaulle lists strong in the region and 10,000 paratroops within quick call.

In the area of Lyon, an underground "maquis" was reported formed. It was said to include many discharged paratroopers who have thus far formed the military backbone of the drive to bring De Gaulle back to power.

After De Gaulle announced yesterday that he already was forming a government without being legally asked, the assembly rebuffed him by giving Pflimlin a 408-165 vote of support.

3 Quit Cabinet

But the conservative independents deserted the government on the vote and the party's three ministers quit the cabinet. Pflimlin, red-eyed from day and night efforts to save his government from Gaullists in Algeria and Corsica, then met with the remainder of his two-week-old cabinet.

The sun snarls radio communication on earth and to find out if these same rays play a part in formation of hurricanes, tornadoes and thunderstorms.

Its findings were to be a part of this country's contribution to world knowledge in the International Geophysical Year.

Housed in the 20-inch ball were instruments designed to measure ultraviolet rays from the sun, especially during the gigantic electrical eruptions in the sun's atmosphere known as solar flares.

When these flares occur, radio communication on earth sometimes is knocked out.

Some scientists suspect that these rays, by electrically charging the earth's atmosphere, may set up the violent air currents that give birth to destructive storms.

and hurried to see Coty at 3 a. m.

Pflimlin said the defection of the independents had weakened the government at a crucial moment and he could not go on. The president refused to let him step aside until a new premier was ready to take over, seeking to avoid a power vacuum while France is threatened with civil strife.

Pflimlin accepted the compromise and Coty began talking with political leaders. The president said he hoped to be able to name a candidate to succeed Pflimlin by evening. If Coty decided not to call De Gaulle, the best guess was that he would ask socialist Guy Mollet to try to form a government. Mollet holds the postwar record for length of office as premier.

Algiers Waiting

The outcome was hopefully awaited in Algiers where the crisis was touched off May 13 by a military civilian seizure of power in defiance of Paris. The last Saturday Corsica has vowed to remain defiant until De Gaulle takes over.

Some 50,000 persons, the largest crowd since the insurgent movement began, demonstrated again last night in Algiers demanding De Gaulle as a strongman leader of France. Paris remained quiet but was tense with rumors that the paratroopers who sparked the Algeria uprising might move to install De Gaulle by force. But the drama in the assembly and Coty's Elysee palace produced no visible effect on the capital's normal life.

Police, some with tommy-guns, ringed every major public building and reserve troops waited in buses in the parks off the Champs Elysees as they have for the last two weeks, but they did not have to go into action.

Strikes called for yesterday by the communists as a show of their bitter opposition to De Gaulle were short and lacked punch. The socialists designated today for a mass protest and more strikes were threatened.

Secret Session

The events which led up to Pflimlin's resignation offer started late Monday night.

At De Gaulle's initiative, he and Pflimlin met secretly. "I asked him to use his authority to recall to their sense of duty those who were rising against republican order," but got no assurance, Pflimlin later told the assembly. A high government source said the premier agreed to stand aside for the general.

De Gaulle's abrupt noontime statement yesterday that he had started to form a government blew up any deal with the surprised Pflimlin, who said he had no advance knowledge of the announcement.

On hearing it, Pflimlin left an assembly debate on his proposed constitutional reforms to strengthen executive powers, met with his cabinet and then he said he would stay in office. That made the assembly's vote approving constitutional reform Pflimlin and De Gaulle. "The moment has come for the assembly to take its responsibilities," Pflimlin told the deputies. "If the government holds, the paratroopers come," some deputies said grimly. "You haven't the right to give up, even under physical force, veteran socialist Paul Ramadier told the cabinet. He said it held the safety of the fatherland and the republic."

New York — Vincent "The Chin" Gigante goes back to his job as a trucker's helper today, acquitted of the attempted assassination of racketeer Frank Costello.

After deliberating more than six hours, an all-male jury freed Gigante late last night.

A gunman fired a single shot at Costello last May in the lobby of his Central Park West apartment building. The bullet only created the 48-year-old gambler's scar. Gigante was charged with attempted murder.

The announcement of acquittal by Judge Foreman Hayward, U. S. District Judge John A. Mulvaney, Philadelphia, was the signal for loud applause by about 40 relatives, friends and friends of the bulking, pasty-faced defendant.

000 and $10,216,355,000; air $17,317,755,000 and $16,320,220,000.

Eisenhower asked a big increase in funds for the office of the secretary of defense, with the bulk of the request earmarked for the new advanced research projects agency.

Use of Stock Funds

The committee voted to authorize the army to use $425 million of its stock fund money for regular activities, and the navy to use $160 millions from a similar fund. Stock funds are revolving accounts built up from sales of uniforms and miscellaneous supplies and equipment.

The new cash, if finally approved by congress, will give the defense department $47,805,000,000 to obligate during the coming year, counting an estimated carryover of about $7 1/2 billion from current year appropriations. The department plans to spend about $40 1/2 billion during the 12 months.

In a report written by Rep. George Mahon (D-Texas) the committee said its action would maintain marine corps strength at 200,000 men at the year's end, national guard strength at 400,000 and reserve strength at 300,000. This is 25,000 more marines, 40,000 more guardsmen, and 30,000 more reservists than Eisenhower had proposed.

Soviet Composer Aram Khataturian welcomed the orchestra on behalf of Moscow musicians and musicians. He and pianist Emil Gilels paid glowing tribute to Ormandy and his musicians.

All five concerts in Moscow are sold out. The orchestra gave three concerts in Kiev and will present four in Leningrad.

Beginning in Kiev tomorrow, U. S. District Judge John A. Mulvaney, Philadelphia, was the signal for loud applause by about 40 relatives, friends and friends of the bulking, pasty-faced defendant.

Ask Stop Sign At W. Pacific, N. Superior

Decision on Parking Meter Bids Awaits Ordinance Draft

The city council's public safety committee is recommending a stop sign on W. Pacific street at N. Superior street.

Ald. Austin Tucker two council meetings ago, asked for a slow or caution sign. The committee at the last council meeting recommended denial of the request, but Tucker had the item referred back to committee for more study.

If council approves, the latest recommendation will be referred to the city attorney for drafting of an ordinance. City Clerk Elden Broehm said.

Why Congress Votes Foreign Aid

Rep. John W. Byrnes in his current newsletter explains why he voted for the bill that recently passed the House authorizing a foreign aid program for the coming fiscal year of $2.9 billion. Rep. Byrnes often has been severely critical of the foreign aid program, and thus his explanation of his favorable vote on the measure is interesting.

The veteran legislator first lists some arguments for foreign aid which, he says, did not influence him. Among these are the idea that foreign aid buys friendship for the U. S. in other countries; and the argument that foreign aid money, 80 per cent of which is spent in this country, would help combat the recession. He then gives the big reason for his affirmative vote:

I supported the Mutual Security bill simply because I believe it is essential to our national security and survival. We cannot ignore the fact that we live in a world dominated by the struggle between the U. S. and Soviet Russia. We are engaged in an economic, political, social and military cold war — which we cannot lose. Mutual Security is one of our weapons in that war.

We cannot win alone. Without Mutual Security we would be deprived of the 250 bases around the Soviet periphery. Without it, we would not have the 4.7 million men, 32,000 aircraft and 2,500 combatant vessels which comprise NATO, nor forces in other areas of the world dependent upon our support. Without it, Korea, Vietnam, the Philippines, Formosa, indeed much of Europe and Asia, might long since have disappeared behind the Iron Curtain and with them vital sources of mercury, tin, nickel, antimony, tungsten and chrome which we must import to survive.

And then Rep. Byrnes makes the point that many opponents of the foreign aid program forget or ignore — the fact that it is indeed a mutual security program, and that our allies supply the bulk of the money needed to keep their own defenses strong.

For example, since 1950, we have furnished $19.4 billion for our NATO allies, but for this sum, we have received defense equivalent to $162 billion (of which) $142 billion (has been) contributed by our allies. If we had to send American soldiers to supplement foreign soldiers guarding the approaches to this country, we would have to pay $6,515 annually to maintain one American per year; we spent $470 to maintain one foreign soldier on the average.

In these few paragraphs Rep. Byrnes has cut through all the verbiage and irrelevancies on both sides of the foreign aid argument and has grasped the essential point — that we help other free countries maintain their defenses because they are not only defending their own soil but the United States as well. Thus a congressman who has been and remains one of the severest critics of our foreign aid program's inefficiencies and boondoggles has nevertheless written one of the most concise and persuasive arguments we have seen in its favor.

Judge Steinle to Face Proxmire

Roland J. Steinle, 62, former justice of the Wisconsin Supreme Court, received the endorsement of the Republican convention for United States senator by an overwhelming vote at the party meeting in Milwaukee Saturday afternoon. It now appears as certain as such things ever are in politics that he will be the party nominee and that he will run against Sen. William E. Proxmire who is unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Since Steinle resigned from the court a few months ago he has traveled up and down the state in the interests of his candidacy and the Republican party. Much of his efforts during this brief period has been devoted to healing the wounds that have divided elements of the party during recent campaigns. The efforts of a peacemaker are not always appreciated by either side and so it is a tribute to Mr. Steinle's skill and understanding that the convention which chose him was one of unusual peace and harmony.

Steinle has been out of contact with party politics for nearly 20 years during his service as a circuit judge in Milwaukee and later a supreme court justice in Madison and thus his success in winning the convention endorsement is a real tribute to his political ability. During recent months he has demonstrated that he has the energy and the enthusiasm to make a strong campaign. His success in uniting the party behind him for convention action is an important accomplishment which seems to augur well for his future.

Steinle has always enjoyed politics. He left a place of honor and security on the bench to return to a more active life as an attorney with the privilege of engaging in politics. He saw the great need of the Republican party for someone to unite it in the coming campaign for senator and accepted the challenge it offered.

In Judge Steinle and Sen. Proxmire the people of Wisconsin have two energetic and skillful candidates for the office of United States senator. In these troubled times there are plenty of problems for discussion. It should be an interesting campaign.

Wisconsin Costs of Government

An evident theme of the Democrats in their campaign against statehouse control by the Republicans in Wisconsin this year is the allegation that the Republicans are big spenders.

Cost of government in Wisconsin is proportionately higher than in some neighboring states, according to the complaint of some of the publicity media of Wisconsin which have the reputation for being harbingers of Democratic platforms and utterances of the Democratic candidates.

Standing alone, that charge is literally accurate. Comparable figures are sometimes difficult to come by — surely reliable comparisons are. But such data as have been published suggest that Wisconsin is probably spending for state and local government — they are inextricably intertwined because of the state's substantial program of subsidies and tax sharing — around $250 per capita.

That would be at a higher rate than prevails in some of the neighboring states and substantially below that of Illinois which is sometimes regarded as one of the great rivals of this state in the attraction of population and economic enterprise.

Yet it is also demonstrable that the people of Wisconsin get more government for that relatively high financial contribution to public treasures and it is fairly evident that they want that higher level of public services.

Why Add to Life's Temptations

Editor, Post-Crescent:

Please, please—for the sake of my four poor, measted, sick with colds children and my own toothached self and my one peach of a husband—please let's keep those detestable, soul-ruining movies from our Appleton theaters.

Here we are—just one family in statistics — trying our bloomin' best to rear our younguns' according to the Good Book and Dr. Spock and our own common sense—praying, pulling and pushing over the ups and downs, nursing our normal household aches and pains or enjoying the latest family joke like ordinary people and then they try to toss those prognostic movies at us.

"Mature" people have the know how and know why to stay away from those movies—but certainly those in the bloom of youth who are constantly searching adult ways will find themselves caught in the web of the creeping perversion in which many of their ill-fated friends find themselves.

Temptations are multitudinous in this world. Why add to them? Why encourage the wicked when only the good promises a better life?

"And God Created Woman" — beautiful words, aren't they? Why should anyone want to turn them into something filthy and ugly? Please—please—censor—CENSOR!

New Publication Tears Down U. S. Foreign Policy, Economic Trend

BY GEORGE SOKOLSKY
(Copyright, 1958)

I have come across a new magazine, The New York Economist, Vol. 1, No. 1, of which is most interesting because it seems to be devoted to downgrading the foreign policy of the United States and economic conditions in the United States.

Granted that neither is too jolly at the present moment, the editor of this publication, Dr. Stephen Urban, seems to see all black, much too black. As his name was not known to me, I looked him up.

Dr. Stephen Urban was born Oct. 22, 1920, as Boleslav Stephen Koska in Ostrava, Czechoslovakia. He came to the United States on Feb. 26, 1951 and was naturalized on June 4, 1957, at which time he petitioned the U. S. District Court to change his name to Stephen Urban. He is stated to have received a doctorate in economics from the University of Frankfurt in Germany.

The Introduction in "an introduction from the publisher," Dr. Urban says:

"During the past two years, we have tried everything including paid advertisements to induce the country's most influential press to alert public opinion, so that the present economic decline (called 'mild' recession, but developing rapidly into a serious depression) might be alleviated. This decline already costs and will increasingly cost the happiness of many families whose providers are losing jobs and income. Similarly, our experience has been that during this period the press and paid advertisements have advanced the cause of more armaments, nuclear bomb testing, 'limited' wars and 'map-making exercises' in the middle east etc., while sober rational analysis to diminish world tensions and thus the danger of war, limited or unlimited, were ignored and/or suppressed."

The fact of the matter is that Dr. Urban who is reported to have come to the United States in 1951 from Germany as a displaced person had published an advertisement in the "Wall Street Journal," in 1958, which would indicate that he is well-heeled financially. His private address is 926 Fifth Avenue which indicates prosperity. Dr. Urban has achieved much in the United States during seven years — years of very high taxes.

I have wondered precisely what this paragraph means: "A most curious twist in history occurred through the intellectual power of man's brains, his capacity to think and construct, not to kill and destroy. Due to our own shortsightedness, the world, led in this regard by our ideological adversaries, is forcing us to remain peaceful, if not to become neutral, in the arena of world politics, or else we must face a war which would devastate our own territory and decimate our own population — the same fate with which we had threatened those who we thought for a decade wanted to wage war on us."

Does Dr. Urban mean to say that the United States is threatening war? Are we being forced to remain peaceful by "our ideological adversaries," the communists? But look at this one: "... In fact, Russia is to-

Civil War Hero Talks to Germans

79 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for the week of May 31, 1879.

General Siegel, the distinguished hero of the late war, arrived in town on Wednesday to fulfill his engagement to address the Germans of this town under the auspices of the Turner Society.

During his stay he was the guest of A. Hettlinger and was well cared for by that gentleman as well as other representative Germans of the community. During the afternoon, he was given a drive about town including a visit to the Springs, Riverside Cemetery, Pierce's Park, and other prominent points of interest.

The General addressed his audience in the German language, devoting most of his talk to the necessity of unification or harmonization of the German, as well as other nationalities, with the people and institutions of the Union. He said that though they may retain their love for fatherland and their native tongue, they owe it to themselves and their growing children to educate themselves and their children in the language, manners and customs of the land of which they now are citizens.

25 YEARS AGO

Wednesday, Mar. 24, 1933

A certain truck owned by the W. S. Patterson Plumbing company had a right to rattle. As a matter of fact it had a right to fall apart right in the middle of the street if it so chooses, for the vehicle can boast 20 years of steady service, and it was still being used for hauling heavy loads of plumbing materials. The truck still had the old solid tires and an 8-pane storm window for a windshield.

State's Voters Rejected Stassen on 3 Occasions

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

Madison — In a very real sense the smashing defeat of Harold E. Stassen in the Pennsylvania Republican primary election for governor last week was a local "story."

For the people of Wisconsin have a Wyngaard more direct acquaintance, by way of the ballot, with the name and personality and ambitious purpose of the aging political tyro than those of any other state in the country save those of Minnesota who started him on his way in the late 1930's by making him governor there.

Three times Stassen committed his unalterable presidential ambitions to the people of Wisconsin, with varying but mildly encouraging results. At one time, for reasons that excite considerable curiosity now, he was a com-day in a position to say — perhaps in an ultimatum one day if we continue with our concepts of the "posture of strength," ignore the notes of her premier, and keep on endangering, by nuclear radiation, the health of all mankind . . .

Who Is He For? And look at this one: "... Do not forget: thirteen years ago American bombers already bombed continental Europe's cities, women and children, causing the deaths of thousands, yes millions of 'perfectly innocent people, some of whom, of course, tragically, were children' . . ."

But that is not enough: "Europe knows that the only danger of Russian occupation comes from the possibility of Russian troops having to advance against American troops entrenched there . . ."

This publication runs on and on in this tone. In fact the United States is said to have an "ignorant or arrogant diplomatic attitude . . ." One wonders if this is a pacifistic or a pro-Russian publication.

The entire issue is written by this one author, who has only been in the United States seven years and who came as a displaced person from Germany. Surely, Dr. Urban has accomplished almost too much in too short a time for it all to be real. The entire operation, it seems to me, requires another look to see what it really means.

manding figure in the politics of this state. No less a galaxy of local leaders than McCarthy, Goodland, Coleman, Laird, to mention only a few, were happy to be on the resolute bandwagon of the man from across the St. Croix river of whom it was said he dreamed of the White House even while he was practicing politics as a student on the University of Minnesota campus at Minneapolis.

THE END?

All of the dispatches about the Pennsylvania Stassen debacle suggested that it marked the end of the man's career in elective politics.

Generally, such forecasts are doubtless right. It is difficult for the rational man to conceive how Stassen can keep going.

But those who do their home-work carefully, among the chroniclers of affairs political, know something about the nature of the ambitious politician.

Stassen has appeared in an absurd light before — when he ran in the Wisconsin presidential primary of 1952 for example, and more notoriously, when he persisted in the abortive effort to purge Vice President Nixon from the national ticket in 1956, and then egregiously ate crow for his pains.

What must be understood is the passionate ambition of the man, the unvarying goal he has kept in mind, the unshamed desire for public place and power before which the observer who doesn't quail must only respond with admiration.

Nor is the Stassen story unusual, except that it is comparatively rare in national politics and he has managed to maintain a publicity — compulsive position long after most other men would have expired through sheer fatigue.

Wisconsin has many Stassens. Every county has seen men who run for sheriff year after year, without any encouragement except that created out of their own romantic ambitions. There are men in the Wisconsin legislature who are dreaming of senatorship and governorship, who probably ought to thank their stars they have gotten as far as they have thanks to an inattentive electorate.

THE BUG

The desire for public office, political fame and power and all that goes with possession of governmental place in a time of enormous governmental power, sometimes seems to excel all the other lusts afflicting the human personality.

Your correspondent has known Wisconsin men who seriously presumed to run for high place, although even their friends were mocking them behind their backs. There have been cases when their ambitions were so unqualified by their talents that only their wives really believed their pretensions. The most difficult job in the world is to explain to an eager candidate, mind made up, that he really doesn't have a chance to win the high office for which he has set his cap.

The Stassen story is a fairly common political story, on a gigantic scale. It recalls the candidate for sheriff in Columbia county, who had run times without success and who finally sought the counsel of the late, great, wise Dan Grady, Portage lawyer, gentleman and philosopher.

"The way I figure it," said old Dan, "the people don't want you."

Hamilton, Nancy Lee, Frank Leonard, Louis Micheln, Dick Peterson, Carole Ryerson and Niki Wise.

A pigeon owned by Bob Stumpf won the Appleton Pigeon club race from Charles City, Iowa, 230 miles with an average speed of 1,048.164 yards per minute.

Presbyterians Merge; Create Single Church

Becomes the Fourth Largest Body in U. S. Protestantism

Pittsburgh — Presbyterians patch up an old fuss today and mold two churches into one. They're forming "The United Presbyterian Church of the U. S. A.," which becomes the fourth largest body in American Protestantism. Twin processions of robed delegates marching to a common rendezvous point will symbolize the merging of the two strands of their tradition. The ceremonies will be climaxed by sharing of the Lord's Supper. Joining forces are the United Presbyterian church and the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., with a combined membership of more than 3 million. "A happy and historic occasion," says the Rev. Dr. Robert N. Montgomery, of New Concord, Ohio, moderator of the U. P. church. It marks the end of a break-up that started more than 200 years ago in Scotland, and has erupted in various cleavages since then. The union also is the latest in a series which has brought several once-separated Protestant groups back together. Dr. Montgomery, in a sermon prepared for the worship service consummating the merger, said: "The quest for unity among the people of God is one of those really wide horizons and great tasks and manly disciplines of life to which we must continue to be dedicated in the united church. "It is the quest that has led us to become one."

Dotted With Splits
The annals of Presbyterianism are dotted with splits, unions and new splits, ever since John Calvin laid the groundwork for the group back in the 16th century Protestant reformation. Often, subtle doctrinal questions have sent the theologically-sensitive Presbyterians with their overlay of Scotch temperament scattering into separate camps.

The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., popularly referred to as Northern Presbyterians, also includes some southern churches however, as well as congregations throughout the rest of the nation—a total of 8,489.

Stocks Gain Despite Slump, Investor Notes

Trust Firm Executive Cites Faith
In Market, Wise Buying as Factors

Faith in the stock market and intelligent investing have resulted in many stocks gaining in value despite lower employment, reduced steel production and smaller dividends in some cases, Harold M. Finley, executive investment officer of the Chicago Title and Trust company, said Tuesday night.

Speaking at a meeting of the Fox River Valley Traffic club at North Shore Golf club, Finley said weak, speculative investors were driven out of the market early in the economic downswing because they couldn't afford to take short-term losses. But during periods of mass fear, the wise investor continues to buy stocks, he said.

Some economists don't predict much immediate improvement in the nation's economy, he said. The economic upturn might be slow, he declared, because of continued large inventories, especially in the auto industry, and accumulative unemployment. The recession might deepen, he said, when large numbers of workers now without jobs use up their eligibility for unemployment compensation.

Investments in common stock are a personal matter, Finley told his listeners. Some people are able to invest wisely, others can't. People who expect to make a killing or who distrust the market in which they are dealing are apt to make small profits and take large losses, he said.

Buying and selling stocks should be considered a business, not a game, Finley advised. Family situation, personal finances and personality factors are important considerations for someone planning to enter the stock market.

"Stocks should be thoroughly investigated before purchase," he stated.

"Investors should expect to take losses and have the courage to sell their stock when it becomes apparent its value is becoming drastically reduced."

"Small investors are safer financially than larger ones because of tax advantages and the fact they have less influence on the market," Finley said.

The public can be terribly wrong in the field of speculative investment, according to Finley. He noted that railroad stocks made a comeback after hitting bottom during the late 1930's and pointed out that without jobs use up their eligibility for unemployment compensation after near-collapse during the lung cancer scare a few years ago.

Program chairman for the evening was Salvatore Porto, Menasha. He was assisted by Frank Otis, Neenah.

The entire week of the meeting has been proclaimed Wisconsin Forest Products week by Gov. Vernon W. Thomson.

The governor will be a guest speaker at a luncheon Tuesday, June 24, at which Assistant Secretary of the Army George H. Roderick will give the meeting's keynote address on forest products in our national defense.

The society, which was founded in Madison in 1946, has about 3,800 members around the world, according to Frank Rovsek, executive secretary. This will be the first year since 1946 that the society has held its annual meeting in Madison.

A focal point of this year's gathering will be the society's new headquarters building being completed. Built of materials donated by various manufacturers of wood-building supplies, the structure will be located near the federal forest products laboratory on land bordering the University of Wisconsin campus.

Set Dedication

The society will dedicate its permanent home at ceremonies on June 22, opening day of the meeting. On the afternoon of Thursday, June 26, the forest products laboratory will hold open house for society members.

Some 80 papers will be presented at technical sessions Monday through Thursday morning. Highlight of these sessions will be a panel discussion of research in forest products as insurance for the future.

V. L. Harper, Washington, D. C., assistant chief of the federal forest service in charge of research, will discuss the federal government's role in utilization research. The industry role will be discussed by Winston D. Patnode, Tacoma, Wash. Research by educational institutions will be dealt with by C. E. Jahn, assistant dean of the State University of New York college of forestry at Syracuse.

Garbage, Rubbish

Garbage and rubbish collection normally made on Friday will be made on Saturday this week because of the Memorial day holiday. Supt. of Sanitation Claude N. Greisch said today.

Lower Freight Rates Seen if Plan's Approved

Railway Opens Bid To Consolidate Its Network of Stations

Madison — Wisconsin industry may be offered lower freight rates if the public service commission approves a proposal of the Chicago and North Western Railway company to close or consolidate many of its stations in small towns.

This possibility came about during testimony here as the railroad began presentation of its case before the PSC.

Ben W. Heineman, Chicago road chairman, said the company currently operates 196 1-man stations in Wisconsin. Under North Western's plan, Heineman said, some agents would serve two, three or four towns instead of one. He estimated the change would save the railway $318,000 a year.

Six in Fox Cities

The small station network includes six in the Fox Cities area. Under the plan, stations at Bear Creek, Bonduel, Dundas, Greenville, Larsen and Marion would become associate stations and not have a full-time agent.

The stations would be handled, when needed, by agents from Brillion, Clintonville, Hortonville and Tigerton. These stations would become central arteries and the agents would go to the associate station if the requirements of a shipper called for personal service, according to the road's application.

Testimony also disclosed that two ultra-modern passenger trains will be delivered to the railway company Oct. 9 for use on the company's Green Bay to Chicago run.

Tentative schedule calls for one train to leave Green Bay about 9:30 in the morning and arrive in Chicago about 1:30 in the afternoon. It would leave Chicago at 4:10 and take the Fox valley route to Green Bay. The other would leave Chicago about 6 o'clock in the evening and take the lake shore route, arriving in Green Bay about 10:30 at night. It would stay overnight in Green Bay and leave for Chicago about 6:30 in the morning on the valley route.

The trains, being built by the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing company at Worcester, Mass., will feature electric heat, reclining seats, double doors at the center, and double decked cars.

It is expected strong opposition will greet the railroad in its attempt to consolidate its station system.

But, Heineman said, the road lost $3 million in the first quarter of 1956 and was in serious financial condition. He said the organization is modernizing its equipment and reorganizing its supervisory force and needs the change in station operation to protect its future.

He said if the change is brought about the company will seek to "reduce rates wherever possible to attract business from truck and water-borne commerce. Heineman declared the road has already cut certain freight rates to assist a new can manufacturer at Green Bay, a vinegar plant at Manitowoc, loggers in northern Wisconsin and Milwaukee breweries.

Neenah — John R. Kimberly, Kimberly-Clark corporation president, today announced preliminary sales of $333,168,000 for the fiscal year ending April 30. This compared with $310,733,968 for the previous year.

Estimated earnings, which are still subject to final audit, were $24,358,000, or $2.86 a share on 8,503,374 shares outstanding. In the preceding year, earnings were $24,802,669, or $2.92 a share on 8,496,484 shares.

Fox Cities Area Growing Faster Than Rest of Nation, Survey Shows

Planning Commission Study Indicates Region's Population Up Over 20 Per Cent Every Decade

The area in and around the Fox Cities has been growing much faster than the average of the rest of the country, according to a population survey compiled by Planning Director Clarence Hammond of the Fox Valley Regional Planning commission.

The survey indicates the region encompassed by the planning commission program has shown a population increase of 21 per cent in each of the last three 10-year census periods. The population of the United States as a whole increased an average of 12 per cent for the same periods.

And, the population of Wisconsin for the period from 1940 to 1950 increased less than the national average, from 1950 to July, 1956. The area around the Fox Cities has been divided into four districts for purposes of the regional planning commission. The accompanying graph shows the growth of the four districts survey shows the same pattern as the population study.

District I is the northeast quarter of the region. It includes Kaukauna, Kimberly, Little Chute, Combined Locks and the towns of Vandenbrook, Kaukauna and Buchanan. The survey shows its population increased from 13,353 in 1860 to 19,942 in 1950.

District II is made up of Appleton and the town of Grand Chute. It is the largest district in population and has increased from 23,398 in 1860 to 34,045 in 1950.

District III, the second largest district, includes Neenah and the towns of N. Charlotte street, was treated Neenah and Menasha. It has increased from 17,948 in 1860 to 29,874 in 1950.

District IV includes the town of Harrison in Calumet county, and the small portion of Appleton in Calumet county. It is the smallest district in population and had 2,818 people in 1950 compared to 816 in 1860. The region itself covers 170 square miles.

Expect Big Increase

Population estimates of the Fox Cities region at the present range from 106,000 to 118,000, according to the Post-21 per cent in each of the last three 10-year census periods. The population of the United States as a whole increased an average of 12 per cent for the same periods.

The U. S. Bureau of Census estimated the nation's population in 1950 increased 11.2 per cent about 9 per cent.

The area around the Fox Cities has been divided into four districts for purposes of the regional planning commission. The accompanying graph shows the growth of the four districts survey shows the same pattern as the population study.

In 1935, there were 16,577 vehicles registered in the region. The total rose to 20,774 in 1940, but then dropped to 17,948 by 1945 as the war curtailed production of civilian vehicles. After the war, the figure climbed sharply to 29,874 by 1950 and to 36,050 by 1955.

District II in 1956 led in motor vehicle registrations with 7,944. Following were District III with 12,989, District I with 6,917 and District IV with 369.

District III, the second largest district, includes Neenah and the towns of N. Charlotte street, was treated Neenah and Menasha. It has increased from 17,948 in 1860 to 29,874 in 1950.

District IV includes the town of Harrison in Calumet county, and the small portion of Appleton in Calumet county. It is the smallest district in population and had 2,818 people in 1950 compared to 816 in 1860. The region itself covers 170 square miles.

Notes to be Issued for School Work

New London Renovation To Start Soon

New London — Early work on the renovation of Lincoln school was assured Tuesday night when the city council and chairman of town boards in the school district authorized issuing notes to raise the $266,600 needed to finance the project.

The choice of issuing notes over the floating of bonds eliminates a 30-day waiting period and avoids a possible referendum.

Mullaney, Wells company of Chicago was engaged to sell the 10-year notes. Harry B. Heign, vice president of the firm, said the interest rate would be about 2.64 per cent and declared there was a ready market for this type of security.

Let Contracts

The board of education let contracts to the low construction bidders.

P. G. Miron Construction company, Appleton, won the general contract with a $170,629 bid; Towne, Inc., Appleton the heating for $20,970; R. Wenzel company, Appleton plumbing for $22,089, and Uptown Electric company, wiring for $25,972.

The city council asked the school board to prepare a 10-year prospectus of building needs.

Olson Company Purchases Upper Michigan Firm

Olson Transportation company, Green Bay, has purchased the L and L Trucking service, Escanaba, Mich., according to President Herbert J. Olson.

Through the purchase the company expands its operations to 286 upper Michigan communities. The company will operate terminals at Escanaba, Iron Mountain, Ishpeming, Marquette, Menominee and Munising.

The purchase increases the number of company terminals to 28 extending on a line from Chicago to Marquette, Mich., Olson said. A total of 55 L and L employees will join the Olson system.

Service will be improved because freight shipments will go in a direct north and south delivery system on an over-night schedule, Olson said. The through service will result in reduced costs, the president stated.

Meeting on Regional Plan Postponed

A meeting called by the Fox Valley Regional Planning commission for 7:30 Thursday night at the Elm Tree Bakery's community room has been postponed, Charles Wood, commission chairman, said this morning.

The meeting of city, village, and town officials and members of the commission had been called to rally support behind the commission's proposal to hire an outside planning agency to prepare a master plan for the region.

The postponement was made after a meeting of planning commission officers Tuesday at Neenah. They wanted Kenneth Schellie, head of the outside planning agency in Indianapolis, Ind., which has offered to make the plan, to talk at the meeting. Schellie was unavailable. A new date will be set later.

At the same time, the quarterly commission meeting set for June 5 was postponed. Commission members were to come prepared to vote on the regional master plan proposal. No new date has been picked.

Sitters Victimize Irate Mom; References a Help, Advises Ann

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: It's time someone said a word about how American mothers are being victimized by a brainless, irresponsible lot who call themselves "sitters."

In the past three months I've had a parade of eight such creatures in my home. They are interested in the following questions (in this order):

1. What's the top rate they can charge and get away with?
2. What's the earliest hour at which they can plunk the kids in bed so they won't be bothered with them?
3. Is there anything good (and expensive) in the house to eat?
4. Is the telephone in order? What in the world is the matter with young girls, today, Mrs. Landers? They expect top prices for just dragging their sloppy frames into a home. I hope you will print this letter because I'm sure there must be millions of women who feel as I do. I am sick to death of these young snips. I can hardly wait until my kids are old enough to sit with each other.

MRS. HAD IT

DEAR MRS. HAD IT: If this is an accurate account of your experience with sitters, you have had it, indeed. However, it's unfair to lump all sitters together and label them "brainless, irresponsible and lazy." Many sitters are fine girls who take pride in the services they perform. If you've had eight duds in a row it's apparent that you're engaging sitters without references, which is always a mistake. Perhaps if you were more selective about the girls with whom you trusted your most valuable possessions (your children) you wouldn't have so much bad luck.

DEAR ANN: Three months ago I asked if I should write a letter to my boy friend who went into the navy. He promised to write to me but he never did. His sister is a friend of mine so I knew his address. You told me not to write to him but to wait. Well, I had a lot of faith in you, so I took your advice—for two weeks. Then I couldn't stand it any longer so I decided to let him know I was mad at him. Instead of writing a letter I tore his picture into little pieces and mailed them to him.

I just heard that he's coming home in three days on an emergency furlough (his grandmother who raised him died). Please tell me how to act. Shall I pretend I still hate him? I really like him very much. Hurry, hurry. Time is short!

LEONA B.

DEAR LEONA: By this time the boy has come and gone. If he called you, you have no problem. If he didn't call, you have no boy friend. In either case you didn't give me enough time to help. Sorry.

DEAR ANN: I'm 24 years old and have been sharing an apartment with a girl from another city who worked with me. My roommate got herself into a jam with a married man and everyone heard about it. She moved out of town two months ago but the gossips are still having a field day.

I just received an attractive job offer in another city but my mother feels I should pass it up. She claims it would be a mistake to leave town now because everyone would think I was in the same kind of trouble.

In my opinion this is ridiculous and I've told my mother so 50 times. She insists a move out of town within the next several months would ruin my reputation.

May I have your opinion? My mother reads your column every day and thinks you are sensible. Please don't let me down.

— B.J.R.

If you have an offer for a better job, I see no reason why you shouldn't accept it if you want to. Your roommate's predicament should not determine how you run your life.

There's no defense against malicious gossip. Your best protection is to conduct yourself with dignity and not become an open target. I hope your mother will reconsider and that she will give you her blessings.

Our Children

Tattling Is Never Good; Has No Mark of Honor

BY ANGELO PATRI

I got a raft of letters recently because I said that no child should be asked, or required to tell on another—or encouraged to do so. The letters ranged from mild remonstrance to abuse.

I believe that anybody who takes the trouble to write to me should have a return letter so I answer each one regardless of agreement or disagreement. The ones that get under my skin are the unsigned ones. I cannot answer them and I would certainly like to do so.

Some people read what I wrote as encouragement for the youthful criminals who are disturbing the schools. Not at all. Nobody needs to "snitch" on them. They are never under cover. No classroom silence shields them nor could it be so. Any violence arouses not only the class but the whole school system. And "snitching" is not the right term for that.

Snitching is tale-bearing. All parents, all teachers know the tale bearer. "Tattling" is a minor fault and is common among younger children. It is a habit that can grow into a

Children soon learn the difference between trivial tattling, malicious talebearing, sadistic informing, and righteous indignation against abuse and the correct measures to stop it. They know they have a right to appeal to law and order and they do. That is not "snitching." And they know it.

Culbertson on Bridge

By Ely Culbertson

Other countries, notably in Europe, take their bridge considerably more seriously than we do, here in the United States, and in selecting their teams for international representation, the governing bridge bodies insist on trial matches that run to as many as 700 deals! This, perhaps, is a little on the grueling and excessive side, but this much is sure: after such trial contests the country should be reasonably confident that it has put its best team in the field!

A hand in the French trials pointed up the fact — if proof were needed — that cute little tricks of play are not the exclusive property of any nationality.

East, dealer.

Neither side vulnerable.

Mr. and Mrs. Elzy Collins, route 3, New London, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Donna, to Michael Coyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Coyle, 319 Waupaca street, New London. The bride-elect is pictured above.

West laid down the spade king to get a look at the dummy, and then promptly switched to the deuce of clubs. East, of course, put in the ten, and South, one of France's bridge luminaries, Pierre Jais, took the trick with the club ace, not batting an eye. He then led a spade toward dummy's remaining Q-10. West put up the ace and, without giving the matter a second thought, led another low club — and South won with the queen and rattled off the required number of tricks.

There is, of course, nothing new about the stratagem South used, but the very brassiness of the play in this particular case was an element in its success. South risked a six-trick, 1100-point penalty in the effort to make his contract! Perhaps it was because West couldn't believe that South had been so brash that he, West, didn't stop to think that East had to have excellent hearts for his double, since he couldn't have held enough else.

Couple Wed In Service At Seymour

United in marriage at 10:30 this morning in a double ring ceremony at St. John Catholic church, Seymour, were Miss Marlene Marie Krizek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Krizek, 125 Robbins street, Seymour, and Dan Ploeger. He is the son of Mrs. William Ploeger, 240 Robbin street, also of Seymour.

The Rev. Joseph A. Labno officiated and the bride's main escort, Miss Joan Ciesielczyk, Seymour, escorted her to the altar. Miss noon until I find out who did Joan Ciesielczyk, Seymour, that is mass punishment served as maid of honor. It is even worse. Bridesmaids were Miss Therese Ann Griesbach and Miss Mary Ellen Griesbach, Black Creek.

David Krizek, brother of the bride, served as best man. Harold Thompson, Bonduel, was able to pit his brains against groomsmen and Roger Eick, Seymour, was usher. A dinner for the newlyweds will be served at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Lakeside inn on Anderson lake. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ploeger attended Seymour High school. He is employed by the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. The out: so where there is no tale-couple will honeymoon in the western states.

Asking For Trouble

This sort of thing should not be permitted in a classroom. No teacher should ask, "Who did that?" When he does he is asking for trouble. Nor should he ever say, "This class will be re-fined after school every afternoon until I find out who did Joan Ciesielczyk, Seymour, that is mass punishment served as maid of honor. It is even worse. Bridesmaids were Miss Therese Ann Griesbach and Miss Mary Ellen Griesbach, Black Creek. will soon learn who his salt. Any teacher worth his salt should learn who his salt. Any teacher worth his salt should learn who his salt. Any teacher worth his salt should learn who his salt.

Some people objected to my saying the Bible was on my side in this matter. I have not space to list the references but I will quote one that in itself is sufficient: "Where He is employed by the Chicago and Northwestern railroad. The out: so where there is no tale-couple will honeymoon in the western states. (Proverbs 26:20)

Reinke, who formerly lived in Pella, Shawano county, is charged with selling television sets and pocketing the money. He was arrested early this month by Sheriff's Lieut. However, California authorities went through extradition procedure, which delayed Reinke's return, Zuelzke said.

Coed Asks Question on Chaperons

BY EMILY POST
Dear Mrs. Post: I am a 23-year-old college student and am in love with a young man who goes to the same college. He shares an apartment with two other friends. I have been going to his apartment to parties and on occasion, to dinner. Even though I never go there alone, my aunt and uncle, with whom I live, object to this as they do not think it proper for young people to be left alone in an apartment, unchaperoned. I cannot see any harm in it as long as there are others present. Will you please give your opinion?

Answer: Assuming that you all behave correctly I see no reason why you together with other young people may not go to the apartment of these three young men unchaperoned. To go alone would be another matter.

Alcoholic Cocktails
Dear Mrs. Post: Neither my husband nor I drink alcoholic cocktails, but we like tomato or clam or fruit juice ones very much. What does one say to find out what is in a cocktail?
Answer: At the house of a friend ask frankly, "What is in this?" If asked why you want to know, say, "Because neither John nor I can take alcohol." It is more tactful to say "can't" than "won't." In the house of a stranger either refuse or taste it carefully and if you do not like it, hold the glass in your hand for awhile and then quietly put it down.

On Corsages
Dear Mrs. Post: Would it be improper for a guest, who is not a member of either family, to wear flowers to a wedding reception? I have been told that only members of the families wear corsages. Will you please tell me if this is true?
Answer: No, anyone who wishes to, may wear flowers.

In Appleton, the high point Tuesday reached 72 degrees and the overnight low was 44. According to the Wisconsin Michigan Power company weather station, the temperature at 11:15 this morning was only back up to 56 degrees, with the wind traveling at 12 miles an hour from the northwest.

State Lows
Minimum temperatures in Wisconsin early today were 6 to 24 degrees lower than early Tuesday. Some other low marks in the state were Spooner 30, Black River Falls 33, Park Falls and Superior-Duluth 35, Eau Claire and Green Bay 38, Wausau 40, Madison and Two Rivers 41, Cedarburg and Lake Geneva 42, La Crosse 45, Milwaukee 46 and Kenosha 47.
Some brief showers occurred Tuesday afternoon over the extreme southern portion of Wisconsin where the temperature was in the 70s and low 80s. Lake Geneva had .02 of an inch, Kenosha .03 of an inch, while traces were reported in the Madison and Milwaukee areas.

Fair and cool weather was reported throughout Wisconsin at 9 o'clock this morning.
High in the nation Tuesday was 112 degrees at Gila Bend, Ariz., the highest reported in the United States so far this season.

A charge of disorderly conduct stemming from an early morning fight Saturday in front of a restaurant in the 300 block of W. College avenue was dismissed Tuesday against Paul A. Skenandore, 19, 136 W. Oklahoma street. Skenandore was ordered to pay court costs of

$2.95 by Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmiede. Appleton police testified that a 15-year-old boy who had been drinking and was belligerent started the fight with Skenandore when he made remarks to girls in Skenandore's car. # Expect Some Question on Pool Fences

Ordinance Committee Sends Proposed Law To Council for Vote

The proposed ordinance which would require a 6-foot fence around backyard swimming pools may be questioned when it comes before the city council next Wednesday for final approval.

Welfare and ordinance committees, in sending the proposed law to council for the last time at a meeting Tuesday night, said a question may arise over what constitutes "around the pool." The height of the fence restriction also may be questioned, they said.

An existing city law, they said, restricts lot line fences to four feet in height and they wondered whether a pool owner might not enclose his pool in a 6-foot lot line fence.

Six other proposed ordinance changes were sent to the council for a final vote next week. They include provisions for:

Changing the name of N. Green Bay street to N. Green Bay road.

Making N. Drew street an arterial street from E. Wisconsin avenue to E. Glendale avenue.

Placing a no parking ban on the section of E. South River street which lies in the 50 feet between West avenue and the next driveway on the south side of the street.

Rezoning a parcel of land off Weimar court and north of E. Newberry street from single family to commercial and light manufacturing district.

The Wisconsin Michigan Power company intends to build a substation on the site.

Rezoning six lots on N. Richmond street north of W. Marquette street from single family to multiple family district.

The change was sought by Chester Meiers.

Rezoning of three lots on Napoleon street south of W. Foster street from single family to multiple family district.

The move also was asked by Meiers.

Reduce Arson to Negligence Charge For DePere Man

Failed To Report

Roger E. Young, 19, route 1, Sugar Bush, was fined $20 and charged six points against his driving record for driving 75 miles an hour in a nighttime speed zone of 55 and denied a charge of failing to report an accident. He was arrested for speeding May 25 after driving through Shroton.

County police charge that Young failed to report an accident when his car hit a guard post at County Trunks D and W. Jan 23 in the town of Maple Creek. Young posted $53.95 for trial June 2.

State records indicate Young has been convicted of speeding May 18 and Dec. 25, 1956 failure to report an accident April 22 (and property damage accident April 12, 1957) and having beer in a car in which minors were passengers April 7.

Wisconsin Rich in Summer Festivals

Family on the Go Can Take In Many Events Such as Folk Shows, Food, Flower Displays

BY LILLIAN SHACKES

For the family that enjoys taking off for a day of sight-seeing or a weekend trip, there are plenty of places to visit in Wisconsin.

There are about 30 festivals and special programs scheduled for the summer and early autumn in the state. Some are time-honored festivals given each year and connected with old world folk customs, others are special fair or food festivals. The Indian ceremonials are not the least of this list of events, colorful with costumes, pageantry and story-telling drama of Wisconsin Indian tribes.

Four events are listed for late May, the Door County Cherry festival at Sturgeon Bay through Memorial day; the tulip show at Pickle-Rite Acres in Pulaski May 30 and 31 and June 1; and the first Indian pow-wow, May 30, nine miles east of Black River Falls.

Villa Louis Opening
A tea, costume ball and a parade of bands and floats at Prairie du Chien for the 3-day Memorial day weekend will mark the opening of the historic Villa Louis in that city. The tour of the spacious home and grounds of one of Wisconsin's earliest and wealthiest settlers, Hercules Dousman, is a treat in itself.

Old Settlers park in Union Grove will be the scene of two events in June. The Racine county pie baking contest will be held there June 7 and a big music festival June 8. At the 7 o'clock evening music festival there will be a drum and bugle corps competition and a program by the Racine YMCA Boys chorus.

Three other June events include the Musky festival June 20, 21 and 22 at Hayward; the Stand Rock Indian ceremonial at 8:45 the evening of June 21 at the upper dells, Wisconsin Dells; and the Chippewa Indian pow wow and ceremonial dances open for the season June 29 at the Indian bowl at Lac du Flambeau. Most of the Indian ceremonials continue through the summer until Sept. 1.

The Midwest Sportsman's jamboree will be held July 4, 5 and 6 at Prairie du Chien and the Wisconsin Spectacle of Music is scheduled for July 26 at South Milwaukee.

An "All You Can Eat" fish dinner will be held from noon until 6 o'clock July 6 at the Cornucopia school auditorium, Cornucopia. The Miss Wisconsin pageant is scheduled for 2 nights at 8 o'clock July 18 and 19 at Webb High school gymnasium in Reedsburg. Waterford will feature wrestling events and a home talent show at its mid-summer festival July 18, 19 and 20. The kraut festival July 25, 26, 27 will include an eating contest at the Caledonia-Mt. Pleasant Memorial park at Franksville.

Drove Up to 80 Miles an Hour As Police Car Tried to Stop Him

A 20-year-old Appleton man had his driver's license revoked for a year and was fined $30 for reckless driving after he led county police on a wild early-morning chase over town roads and state highways Friday. The offense will cost him six points against his driving record.

Police told Municipal Judge Oscar J. Schmieg that Carson T. Curtis, 20, 906 N. State street, left the White Birch tavern on Highway 47 at a high rate of speed, ignored the stop sign at Highway 47 and sped down a dirt road. Police Sgt. George Elise was unable to catch Curtis because the man swayed his car from side to side at speeds up to 80 miles an hour, police testified.

Curtis ignored the red dome light and siren on Elise's patrol car and drove onto Highway 187, scattering gravel from the side so that Elise's windshield was cracked.

Curtis was trapped when Elise cut him off as the man drove his 1949 car onto Highway 54 after ignoring the stop sign on Highway 187, police said.

Elise said Curtis told him he didn't know the police were following him.

Best Parents Take Counseling, Eggert Tells 'Y' Club

Parents who have good children are usually those who attend child counseling meetings while those who need help are absent, Alfred Eggert, Outagamie county relief and welfare director told the Y's Men's club Monday night.

He opposed use of special schools and "woodshed techniques" to correct juvenile delinquency.

Love, protection and healthy family attitudes are the answer to youth problems, Eggert stated. Trouble-making children are those who have been rejected by their parents at an early age and repay their rejection with hostility.

He warned against over-protective attitudes by parents who dispute decisions by those in authority over their children. Such parents are as much to blame for delinquency as neglectful parents, Eggert declared.

Robert Gosse 18, Greenville, was fined $35 and charged nine points for reckless driving which led to an accident. He was charged after he turned onto Highway 41 from N. Mason street and lost control of his car, traveling about 300 feet across the highway and into the ditch.

Russell P. Natrop, 19, route 4, Appleton, was fined $25 and ordered to attend safety school for ignoring a traffic signal and causing an accident. The offense will cost him six points. Natrop was charged after an accident at W. College avenue and Appleton street.

Charged with speeding were: Frank F. Kranzusch, 18, 712

All About Men — XV

Where You Go, Make Her Go

BY JOSEPH H. PECK, M.D.
(Condensed from the book, "All About Men," © 1938 by Prentice-Hall, Inc.)
If you have decided to move absent, Alfred Eggert, Outagamie county relief and welfare director told the Y's Men's club Monday night.

He opposed use of special schools and "woodshed techniques" to correct juvenile delinquency.

Consider her feelings and perhaps you will understand her attitude better. Not that this loving understanding should in any way influence your plans. It is the nature of the distaff side to gripe.

However, your wife has cared for you too long to desert you now. But, being expert in fighting a delaying action, she will campaign to the bitter end. If she should balk, grasp her by the hair and drag her along. She is a Ruth at heart who wants to go "wither thou goest."

It's Your Turn
Her procreative machinery ran out of gas some 10 years ago and you were only helpful in reminding her that all women come to that pass if they live long enough.

Now the shoes is on the other foot. You expect your retirement to be as big a production as the launching of the "Queen Mary," and you can't understand why she isn't more excited.

Look Pop she concluded long ago that you were just a moth-eaten edition of a little boy, and she knows that boys and she managed to endure are not very stable. One day weekends, but may the saints they want to be a cowpoke preserve her from week after week of Sundays.

Pass From Picture
She may also balk at your retiring because she knows that a grandpa with nothing to do will pass out of the picture pronto.

Well, you say, the guys who died so soon didn't plan their retirement. Anyway, since your income is to be halved, you can't hope to keep up with the old crowd.

At this point she reminds you of all the things you can deny yourself. Golf is not only expensive, but also a waste of time. It never occurs to her that all those trips to the beauty parlor aren't paying off. When she wails, "I just can't do a thing with my hair," you should say, "And neither can the beauticians."

Don't expect your social security checks to add up to happiness. You must discover your own methods of keeping pleasantly entertained, and I hope you're more original than a lot of old duffers who go around visiting the sick and infirm.

It's hard for you to accept the fact, but your wife is now the only person on earth who cares half a damn whether you get up or not in the morning. She is the sole listener whose duty requires her to sit through your long-winded dissertations on what is wrong with the country.

If you think you are indispensable, it may jar you to know that, once you are gone a wheezy little dog or a mangy old cat will replace you as beneficiary of her maternal instincts. Pets can take the place of husbands you know.

Revive Tricks
Now is the time for you to revive all the tricks of courtship which have lain dormant for 40 years. Praise your wife's cooking, admire her hair-do, give her surprise presents and be as gentle with her as you were before marriage.

Don't do all these things at once, however, or she will suspect your sincerity and think you have been up to some mischief with the widow down the block. And the shock of your resurrected devotion may kill her.

Another thing, Pop. Don't

The End

City Gets $583,030 As Its Share of State Income Tax
City Treasurer Ray L. Feuerstein has received $583,030.10 from the state as the city's share of income taxes paid between July 1 and March 31.

The payment compares with $568,333.01 received at the same time last year.

Of the total, Feuerstein said $3,391.46 was paid in adjustment for monies paid earlier, but erroneously to other municipalities.

The total also breaks down, the treasurer said, into $580,828.75 from taxes paid by Outagamie county residents of the city and $2,201.35 for Calumet county city residents. This compares with $566,836.88 and $1,546.13, respectively, last year.

Another payment is due Aug. 15.

make a fool of yourself, as I often have, trying to tell your kids how to raise their children or run their homes.

You had your day. For 50 years or more you were like the storied rooster that thought the sun rose just to hear him crow. Now Dad there are a lot of cockerels fighting among themselves for the honor of knocking you off your dunghill.

Go gracefully under your own steam. It saves bitter disappointment and frustration if you bow, off the stage while the applause is still ringing in your ears.

Picnic Food Prices
Higher Than in '57

Meats Anywhere From 10 to 20 Cents
More; Produce Items Increase, Also

If it's apicnicing you're going this Memorial day weekend, be prepared to spend a little more than you did last year. Most meats, particularly those lending themselves to the barbecue spit, are higher this year, as there many items of produce.

Price increases on bratwurst and wieners, for instance, are from 10 to 20 cents a pound. Right now, stores are tagging bratwurst at about 67 cents a pound, while wieners range from 55 to 79 cents a pound. Best picnic buy, in fact the best protein buy, is chicken, with fryers at 39 cents a pound. If you're interested in chicken parts, breasts are 79 cents and necks and backs are 15 cents a pound.

Another barbecue item, spare ribs, are very high at 59 cents a pound, as is ground beef, ranging from 57 to 89 cents a pound, depending on quality.

Pork Down
All other meats are high. Although pork has dropped 10 cents a pound—it went up 10 cents last week—it's still a luxury item with a few exceptions. Picnic hams at 45 cents and ham roasts upward from 55 cents are considered fairly reasonable.

A sampling of other prices shows pork chops from 79 to 89 cents, pork steak from 59 to 69 cents, pork roast from 59 cents upward, rib roast from 79 to 89 cents, round steak from 85 to 89 cents, sirloin steak from 99 cents to $1.09, chuck from 45 cents, leg o' lamb at 79 cents and veal chops at 79 cents a pound.

Eggs are good at a minimum of 49 cents for a dozen Grade A large.

A real treat for picnic roasting—sweet corn—is coming to Appleton in greater abundance and is not too bad at six ears for 49 cents. That price will come down soon when home grown corn comes to market.

Other good vegetable buys are radishes at 5 cents a bunch, cucumbers at 10 cents apiece, carrots at 15 cents a bunch, green beans at 25 cents a pound, rhubarb at 15 cents a pound and asparagus at 25 cents a bunch.

Lemons Low
Moderate to expensive are green cabbage at 8 cents a pound, red cabbage at 15 cents a pound lettuce at 29 cents a head, celery at 39 cents a bunch, green peppers at 15 cents apiece, and California potatoes at 10 pounds for 69 cents. Idaho potatoes have dropped and are good at 10 pounds for 55 cents.

A good old picnic standby, lemonade, is easy on the pocketbook now. Lemons are among top fruit buys at 39 cents a dozen.

Other fairly good fruits are strawberries at 43 cents a quart and pineapple at 30 cents apiece.

High priced at the moment but destined for downward movement are peaches at 59 cents a pound, cherries at 69

Set Meeting on
E. Wisconsin
Traffic Light

Opponents of the proposed stop-go plan for E. Wisconsin avenue and N. Morrison street will meet with state highway commission officials and the city council's public safety committee Monday night, June 11, at 8 o'clock.

A plan for the lights was submitted to the public safety committee earlier and was to have otherwise the E. Wisconsin light been recommended by the would flash caution and the N. Morrison street light stop.

Full Traffic Force on Duty This Weekend
Madison — Gov. Thomson said Tuesday that every available state traffic patrolman would be on the highways during the Memorial day weekend to help regulate what is expected to be unusually heavy traffic. He also urged all county and local traffic enforcement officials to utilize all their men for traffic duty during the weekend. After the Memorial day weekend, the state traffic patrol will be on a regular 48-hour week until Labor day. Patrolmen have been working a 40-hour week. "The state government," the governor said "is making every possible effort to keep down the traffic increase in traffic fatalities we have come to expect during every holiday weekend. "The presence of traffic officers on the highways is a definite deterrent to careless and reckless driving. "I urge every driver using Wisconsin highways to remain alert and careful while traveling in congested weekend traffic."

County Scores State Policy for Hospital Reimbursement Cost

Joins in Supreme Court Test to Secure Actual, Not 'Average' Expense

Oshkosh — Cooperation with Racine and Walworth and other counties in a supreme court hearing on the payment of per capita costs for county hospital for mental patients instead of an average cost based on costs of all county hospitals.

Dist. Atty. Jack Steinhilber said the supreme court next Tuesday morning will hear oral arguments on whether it should consider a mandamus request from Racine county to force the state to pay the actual per capita costs for county hospitals for mental patients instead of an average cost based on costs of all county hospitals.

"We disagree with the attorney general's ruling on the meaning of the words 'its average costs' under which all the costs for county hospitals have been averaged," he told the board Tuesday afternoon.

County Average $23.89

Winnebago county's costs averaged $23.89 per week per patient while the state average is $18.72 per week. Winnebago county is paying the $5.17 difference since the maximum reimbursement from the state and the county, under the attorney general's ruling, allows only the $18.72 payment.

New Junior High At Least 2 Years Away, City Told

Can Crowd Over 400 in Kimberly, Mennes Says, by Vacating Rooms

Neenah — Better junior high school facilities for the 350 plus pupils who need them immediately are at least two years away.

Paul Groth, vice president of the board of education, advised nine of the 10 Neenah aldermen and Mayor Chester Bell of that fact Tuesday evening in an informal joint meeting of the school board, city council and special citizens committee studying the problem.

In the meantime, according to Supt. of Schools H. B. Mennes, it may be necessary to force the vocational school and retarded children group to vacate two rooms they now occupy in the Kimberly Junior High school and possibly drop one or more of the special features of the school, such as art.

"By crowding we can get 400 to 425 pupils in the building," Mennes said. The school was built in 1907 for 250 students and now holds about 340.

A professional architect will report to the citizens committee within a few weeks on the feasibility of each of five recommendations for providing increased facilities.

Review with Council
The citizens committee reviewed its work with the aldermen, just as it did with members of the previous city council.

A projected estimate of the seventh and eighth grade enrollments shows that by 1969-70 over 700 youngsters will need junior high facilities.

The most likely choice for a new junior high building, if one is erected, is the city owned block bounded by Elm street, Laudan boulevard and Reed street. This area is directly

Tipsy Driver Forfeits $104

Oshkosh Woman Had Pleaded Innocent Earlier

Oshkosh — Dorothy Rosenow, Oshkosh, forfeited a bond of $104.20 to Neenah police this morning for drunken driving rather than be tried for the offense.

She pleaded innocent on May 17. She was arrested about 12:40 that morning at S. Commercial and Meade streets after police had followed her for several blocks. Police said she was driving erratically.

She tested .32 per cent alcohol in the bloodstream on a drunk-o-meter examination. A reading of .15 per cent is considered evidence of intoxication.

Her driver's license was automatically revoked for one year.

Donors Urged to Drive Safely, Preserve Blood

Milkmen to Help Enrol New Names On Red Cross List

Neenah — Potential blood donors were encouraged today to preserve the valuable fluid rather than spilling it in Memorial day traffic accidents.

The reminder was issued by Carl Snyder and Jerry Bump, co-chairmen of blood donor recruitment for the Twin City Red Cross blood program.

Residents will be given an opportunity to put their names on the blood donor rolls next week, when milkmen and dairies will join the blood bank of Neenah.

Officials in explaining the blood donor program to customers, said: "Milkmen will leave a card at each home they serve, outlining the program and providing space for donors to enrol. The cards will be picked up by the milkmen a few days later. Anyone between the ages of 18 and 60 may donate blood."

but parental consent is needed for those between 18 and 21.

The Twin Cities have always had a good record of blood donations, the co-chairmen said, but the list of donors' names has dwindled while the cities' population has grown. Many who have been donors in past have moved away or are no longer eligible, and the enrolment of new donors has not kept pace, they said.

Residents of the Twin City area are automatically eligible to benefit by the blood bank.

The board discussed the proposal with members of the new city council. The previous council had eliminated $9,000 from the board's 1958 budget which was earmarked for the gym treatment.

Board member Arthur Plummer said that with such treatment the gym would become the city's only assembly hall. The large enough for 3,000 spectators. Several organizations had held meetings and dinners in

Board Renews Plea for NHS Gym Treatment

Cite Educational, Civic Benefits Of Soundproofing

Neenah — Acoustical treatment of the Neenah High school gymnasium was urged by members of the school board Tuesday night, for civic as well as educational purposes.

The board discussed the proposal with members of the new city council. The previous council had eliminated $9,000 from the board's 1958 budget which was earmarked for the gym treatment.

Board member Arthur Plummer said that with such treatment the gym would become the city's only assembly hall. The large enough for 3,000 spectators. Several organizations had held meetings and dinners in the gym, he said, and complained of the poor acoustics. Most had said they would not return.

As many as one-third of the 1,000 students at school assemblies are unable to hear what is being said, Plummer noted.

Athletic Funds

Plummer suggested that the job might be done with athletic department funds, which now show a surplus due to a successful basketball season and state sectional tournament. This department has about $7,500 in the bank at the moment.

Another proposal — to take the money from unexpended funds raised in bond issues for the construction of Taft school and the Hoover school addition — was immediately squelched by City Atty. Charles Schaller.

Schaller said that the money was borrowed for a specific purpose and, like a mortgage loan, cannot be used for any other purpose since a trust is imposed.

The matter will be covered in a formal letter to the council, board vice president Paul Bell said. Mayor Chester Bell said it would receive official attention at that time.

County Changes Insurance on Hospital, Home

33 to 13 vote a resolution unanimously recommended by the hospital trustees and the finance committee to cancel all present policies on the county home and hospital, some of which had up to four years to run, and to award the contract for $3,558.00 insurance coverage to Mutual Service Casualty company on its low bid.

Supv. R. M. Sensenbrenner of Menasha of the finance committee stated penalties from cancellation of the present policies were less than the saving the county would receive through the lowest bid, which was about $1,700.

Supv. Orrin King, Oshkosh, finance committee chairman, reported the trustees had not been satisfied with the insurance coverage on the home and hospital and had a re-survey made. They wanted the coverage increased a half million dollars and felt it was injustice to the taxpayers not to advertise for bids on the insurance coverage.

Next fall, all those living on the Island will attend Nicolet school. Butte des Morts school boundaries are the Fox river on the south, Ninth street on the north, Little Lake Butte des Morts, west, and Racine street to Third street, Third to Appleton and Appleton to Ninth on the east.

Insect Fighters Alert for Another Year of Reporting

Washington — With a new crop season at hand, the nation's insect fighters are getting set to discover, control and eradicate any new outbreak of pests that would hamper farm production.

The never-ending battle against insects is directed by research service.

A nationwide network of volunteer entomologists track insect activity, and report what they find.

Report Findings
Scientists in land-grant colleges, researchers in state and federal experiment stations, extension service specialists, county agricultural agents, employees of state departments of agriculture, and other workers join with the agricultural research service to alert the nation to insect development in each state.

The Entomological Society of America helps guide activities through advisory committees. Growers are kept aware of insect buildups that might spread to their areas. Insect survey reports help industries gear production of insecticides according to potential needs.

Common Insects
Some of the more common insects that bob up annually to plague entomologists and farmers include the grasshopper, the European corn borer, the Mediterranean fruit fly, the khapra beetle, the boll weevil, and the spott alfalfa aphid.

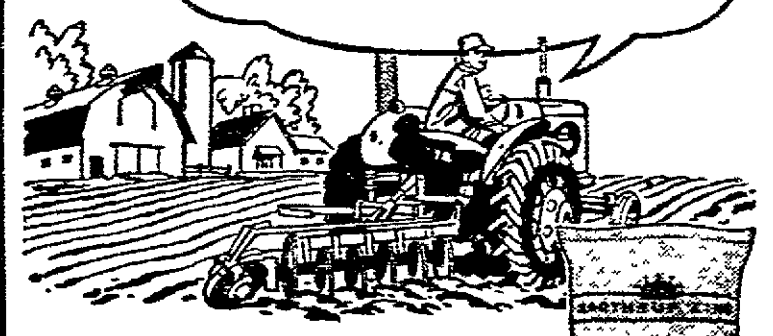

In flashing alerts to potential areas of infection, the insect fighters also supply farmers with latest information on ways of combatting the pests.

Despite efforts of this nationwide system of detection and control, insects annually cause crop damage running into the

U. S. Extends Deadline for Grain Program

June 6 Set for Filing Acreage;
Allow More Use

Washington — The agriculture department has set a new deadline for farm participation in the feed wheat program under the rigid marketing quota program.

A change in the farm law made effective this year permits a farm whose wheat acreage allotment is less than 30 acres to grow up to 30 acres of the grain for use exclusively on the farm where produced. Such grain is not subject to marketing quotas, since it cannot be sold legally.

Previously the deadline had been last October for winter wheat and planting time for the spring wheat crop.

The new date for both is June 6. This new deadline may allow farmers to go ahead and harvest for farm use some wheat which otherwise would have to be plowed under or otherwise disposed of without being harvested.

Papers relating to participation in this program must be filed with the department's estimated losses of $158 million to the corn crop last year.

Farmer Union Leader Warns Of Strikes

Declares Milk Bill
Opposition May Lead To 'Farm Holiday'

Chippewa Falls — The prospect of milk being dumped in the streets of Wisconsin communities as it was in the 1930s was raised by Kenneth Hones, Wisconsin Farmers Union president, in an address to union leaders.

Hones spoke to the leaders prior to the opening of the organization's summer camp for young people.

"Since farmers continue to be low man on the processor-dominated agricultural totem pole, we must get together on a commodity-by-commodity program to benefit all agriculture or we will most surely hear more talk of milk strikes and other farm strikes, patterned after the Farm Holiday association of the 1930s," he said.

"The Farmers union doesn't want this to happen," he said, "and we know that consumers don't want it to happen. But if Ezra Benson wants milk-dumping in the streets of Wisconsin communities, all he has to do is to continue to turn down programs advanced by farmers and their organizations."

He declared, "Since the Eisenhower-Benson answer to self-help is 'no,' the dairymen's answer to the administration and the entire nation may be 'strike.'"

However, he claimed, the administration's opposition to price support and self-help farm programs offers the farmer or "a golden opportunity to build our farm cooperatives to build the supply, marketing and bargaining type at the local level into commodity-by-commodity farmer-owned sales and processing business institutions at the national level."

Cattle Decline but Production Increases

Fox River Valley Farms Cut Herds as
Average Yield Tops Mark in State

Madison—Fewer but better dairy cows — that's the farm story in the Fox valley counties, according to a new census report of the state-federal crop reporting service here.

As in the state as a whole, the number of dairy cows declined slightly in the Fox river valley region last year over 1956, but the cows were better producers than ever before.

The average dairy cow in the eastern district last year produced 8,100 pounds of milk, against an average of only 7,950 during the previous year, and a 1957 average for all of the cows in the state of 7,640 pounds.

The district included a Brown county production average of 7,700 pounds, an Outagamie county average of 8,100, and a Winnebago county average of 8,500, highest in the state. Highs were also reported for Calumet county and Sheboygan at 8,400 pounds.

The 10 county district reported 364,700 producing dairy cows for 1957, a decline of about 3,000 for the year.

The census estimates showed a total of 652,000 of all cattle in the 10 counties in January of this year, including 409,000 milk cows and heifers 2-years-old and over.

Brown county last year had 45,300 producing dairy cows, a decline of 200 from the previous year. Outagamie had 56,100, a gain of 200, and Winnebago county reported 31,300, a decline of about 1,200 from the 1956 herd totals.

The 1958 census figures show an estimated 4,298,000 total for all cattle in the state, including 2,552,000 milk cows and heifers two years old. The total is somewhat below the figure for last year but the number of milk cows and heifers is slightly above the 1956 figures.

Farm Electrical Use Increases

Washington — The average electrified farm has stepped up its use of power by 142 per cent in the last 10 years.

Reporting the results of a survey the agriculture department's marketing service said the average farm user consumed 414 kilowatt hours of electricity monthly in 1957 compared with 171 hours in 1947.

The service said increase application of electricity to farm and home tasks accounted for the increase.

While the farmer's use of electricity went up 142 per cent in the 10-year span, his average monthly bill went up only 91 per cent. The average cost per kilowatt hour declined 21 per cent from 3.22 cents to 2.54 cents.

The reduction per kilowatt hour was attributed primarily to the "step-down" rate structure which generally provides for declines in rates as more power is consumed.

County Radio Club Tests New Power Supply

Hortonville — The Outagamie Radio club tested a new emergency power supply when the club met at the home of the president, Paul Steinert. Several contracts were made on the 2-meter band with New London, Clintonville and Waupaca during the test.

The new unit is part of the plan and equipment of the club to provide emergency communication for the community in cooperation with any possible disaster or civil defense work.

The three K.V.A. generator was built and designed by the Kurz and Root company of Appleton and was donated to the club by Henry Kuhn, chairman of the board and E. B. Brownell, company president. The gasoline motor, trailer and assembly of the unit was provided by Paul Steinert, manager of Fox Valley Canning company.

The club plans to use the unit on a field day, June 28 and 29 from a location in the county for a period of 27 hours as part of the training program for emergency purposes.

The Outagamie county boys receiving pigs were Jerry Hoberger, Dennis Dobberstein, David Handschke and Leon Krake, all of New London; Tommy Johnson, Shiocton; Keith Schroeder, Appleton; Francis VerVoort, Seymour; Gene Gorges, Black Creek, and Larry Peters, Nichols.

Marion High '9' Wins, Advances To Sectional

Downs Iola, 6-1, In District Playoff Contest

Marion — Marion High defeated Iola, 6-1, Tuesday morning at Manawa in a play-off of district baseball tournament winners. The Pigeons now play in a sectional tourney.

The two clubs had figured in a 4-way tie for the Central Wisconsin conference title. Marion handed Iola its only CW loss—a 10-7 beating—earlier.

Righthander Ken Wolff stopped Iola on seven hits Tuesday walking two and striking out one. Iola hurlers Jim Helgeson and Gary Larson also gave up just seven hits but the Pigeons put the blows to better use.

Marion took a 1-0 lead in the second on singles by Ernie Pevonka and John Jones.

The Pigeons added three in the third. An error and two sacrifices produced one run and then Wolf singled and Bill Radies doubled for another. Pevonka then crashed a double to score Radies.

The loser was starter Helgeson who allowed five hits in 2-1/3 innings. Larson hurled the last 4-2-3 frames, giving up just two hits.

Veteran Cops 7th Victory; Jones Loses

By the Associated Press
Warren (The Wonder) Spahn, working his usual magic over the St. Louis Cardinals, is over a third of the way home today in his run for a record 20-victory season. And the National league schedule is less than a quarter over.

After being sidetracked by home runs in his last two starts, the 37-year-old southpaw gained his seventh victory of the season Tuesday night on a pinch-hit, 2-out, ninth inning homer by Joe Adcock as the Milwaukee Braves junked "Sad" Sam Jones' 2-hi shutout for a 3-2 decision over the Cards. Spahn twirled an 8-hit-

2 Harmless Singles
Spahn, now 7-1, can set a major league record for left-handers by bagging his ninth 20-victory season. He now shares the record with former American leaguer Bob "Lefty" Grove.

If "Sad" Sam's sad these days, it's no wonder after what's happened to the Cardinal right-hander in his last two starts. He allowed only three hits, but was beaten, 1-0, by Philadelphia and Robin Roberts last week. And last night,

Foxes Drop to 2nd With 10-Game Average of 1,050

In the 3-game home stand that opens tonight, the Fox Cities club will have one other objective in addition to improving its position in the Three-I league baseball race. That is: regain the top spot in the attendance derby.

During the third Post-Crescent attendance survey (covering the week of May 18-24, inclusive), the Foxes dropped from first to second in drawing power. Their average paid admissions fell by 180 per game to a 10-game average of 1,050.

Cedar Rapids, which has been first or second all season in attendance, regained the top despite a shrinkage of its own. The Raiders' gate dropped an average of 85 a game to a level of 1,089 for the first four weeks of the season.

Only two clubs improved their averages during the fourth week of the season. Burlington had an average increase of 36 customers, while Davenport had a hike of two. Rochester continued having its gate troubles, falling to a new low of 593.

Braves' Bonus Player To Join Cedar Rapids

Dancisak Signs Denny Menke, 17-Year-Old Iowa Youth, After Outbidding Rival Clubs

Milwaukee — The Milwaukee Braves called at an Iowa farm Tuesday, apparently paid out a bundle of cash and signed Denny Menke, one of the brightest prospects to come out of the cornfields since Bob Feller left for the big city.

A pitcher and infielder, the 17-year-old Menke will report Thursday to the world champions' Three-I league farm club at Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Might Be $100,000
There were only hints as to the size of the bonus that lured Menke into the camp of the Braves. According to a rigidly enforced policy, Milwaukee officials refused to discuss terms.

But before he signed at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Menke of Bancroft, Iowa, Denny said he had no favorite, but would sign with the club that presented "the best combination of opportunity and money."

Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles, one of the teams in the bidding, had

Lose Finale Of Bee Series On Homer

The Fox Cities Foxes hope the cheers of the first home booster crowd of the season tonight will end their current losing streak and their late-inning jinx.

Tuesday night in Burlington, the Foxes lost their third straight game to the Bees — this time, 5-3. And, for the second time in three days, an eighth-inning home run spelled defeat.

Tonight, the Foxes welcome the hard-hitting Green Bay Bluejays to Goodland field in the first local duel of the only two Wisconsin teams in the Three-I league. Last week, the Foxes lost a pair of 1-run decisions in Green Bay.

The Appleton Northside Advancement association is sponsoring the first booster night of the season. The association bought out the park for $1,300 and distributed complimentary tickets to customers of its member stores.

Either bonus right-hander Bert Guenther or unbeaten Lefty Griffith will open as the Fox Cities pitcher.

Lee Handley drove in four runs — including a 3-run homer in the eighth — last night to give southpaw Jim Brewer the decision over Ron Bloodworth. It was Brewer's first win since April 30 — and that, too, was over the Foxes. Bloodworth, who had beaten the Bees earlier in the 5-game series, now has a 2-3 record.

Bob Van Dyke drove in all three runs for the Foxes.

Take Early Lead
The Foxes got away to a 2-run lead in the first inning. After two out, "Tex" Taylor doubled to left and Carlos Pascual walked. Van Dyke shot a double to right center for both runs.

Burlington tied it in the third on doubles by Dave Hanrahan and Fred Caviness, a walk to Don Voigt and a single by Handley.

The Fox Cities took a 1-run edge in the sixth on a double by Don Dantoni, a fly-out and an infield hit by Van Dyke.

In the four innings from the fourth through the seventh, Bloodworth whizzed through the Bees with little difficulty, fac-

Green Bay — Unable to match their field event power in the running competition, Appleton High school's track Terrors were dethroned of their Fox River Valley conference relays crown here Tuesday night.

Surprising Sheboygan Central, 6 inches was set by Fond and Green Bay West tied for du Lac in 1955.

The event, which wound up the evening's festivities, saw Tank soar 11 feet, 6 inches, Verkuilen 11-3 and Gebheim 10-9. Tank's was the evening's top individual height.

Verbrick Is 1st Entrant in Meet

The first entrant in the Fox Cities Amateur golf tournament is Eddie W. Verbrick, route 2, Menasha. Verbrick is an 8-handicap golfer at Neenah Ridgeway. Entries opened Tuesday and will close on midnight June 14.

Three Men to Direct Appleton Legion Nine In 1958 Campaign

A trio of men will manage the 1958 Appleton entry in the Fox River Valley Junior League.

Ray Kolasinski, who once pitched for the Menasha Falcons, is the newcomer on the team's field strategy board.

Walt Trinrud and Norm Bunkleman, who assisted last year, will be back as managerial aides.

the meet in 1956 and 1957—were a tight fourth with 58.

Appleton rolled up 36 points in the five field events, winning the broad jump and pole vault and placing in all five. Coach Ray Kinziger's forces added just 22 in the seven track categories, coming in better than fifth in just two races.

The Terror pole vault crew of Dennis Tank, Tom M. Verkuilen and Mitchell Gebheim set a new meet record by flying 33 feet, 6 inches. The old standard of 32 feet, 6 inches was set by Fond and Green Bay West tied for du Lac in 1955.

The event, which wound up the evening's festivities, saw Tank soar 11 feet, 6 inches, Verkuilen 11-3 and Gebheim 10-9. Tank's was the evening's top individual height.

Record in High Jump

On the victorious Appleton broad jump unit were Dick King, Jack Ullwelling and Howie Hamann. King went 19 feet, 8 1/2 inches, Ullwelling 18-10 and Hamann 18-8 1/2 for an aggregate 57 feet, 3 inches.

Appleton's Bill Borum, Howie Hamann and Tom E. Verkuilen were second in the shot put to West's record-setting trio of Larry Johnson, Gary Wouters and Gary Bongers.

Wouters' fine heave of 54 feet, 1 1/2 inches helped boost the Wildcats' total to 145 feet, 7 inches—one inch better than the previous mark, set by West in 1955.

A third field event record was smashed in the high jump where East's Bob Wittig, Tom Huggbanks and Fred Dahnke leaped 17 feet, 6 inches—five inches above the record, held by the Red Devils, set in 1949. Appleton was fifth there, with

Green Bay Tops League-Leading Davenport, 9-5

Late-inning fireworks were the fashion in Three I league action Tuesday.

Third-place Green Bay inched closer to first place by beating league-leading Davenport in the tenth inning, 9-5, after scoring twice in the seventh to gain a 5-3 tie.

Singles by Andy Vandervelde, Wade Arnold and Bob Parker, two walks, two errors and a wild pitch did the damage in the big tenth. Don Mincher hit a 2-run homer for Davenport in the first and Dick Lombardi had a solo shot for the Wisconsin club in the sixth.

At Cedar Rapids, Leo Posada's jackpot wallop gave Rochester an 8-4 victory in the ninth. The smash came after a single and two walks.

Syracuse, N.Y. —(AP)—Don Carter of St. Louis made "the balls perfectly. On the crucial greatest pressure strike I've pitch, the ball curved into ever had to make," to avoid pocket for another strike.

Carter began with 223, 222 and 206. After the ninth frame of the last game it became obvious he needed three strikes in the last frame for a 215 game, a tie and a rolloff.

He stroked in the first two out of the tournament. Only six bowlers remained in the tournament Tuesday night.

Tom Hennessey, another member of the top flight St. Louis Bowling Congress Masters tour—both Carter and Patterson had Budweisers and Lou Frantz of Louisville, Ky., are the only undefeated finalists.

Cerv Drives in Four Runs, Moves A's Past Losing Bosox Into 2nd

By the Associated Press

Bob Cerv, who became a hefty hitter by shedding some weight, seems to have made Bob Turley his favorite target as the Kansas City Athletics make their bid to tip the scale against the New York Yankees this season.

The slugging outfielder, down to a trim 204 or so after sweating off about 10 pounds, crashed his second home run off the no-windup right-hander and drove in four runs as the band of ex-Yankees cracked the variety, 7-3.

Turley, whose season-opening string of shutout innings was junked at 19 by Cerv's home run as the A's lost, 8-1, in New York May 2, had given up only six earned runs while completing each of his starts.

He had a 7-0 record going into Tuesday night's game at Kansas City.

Chisox Win

This time, he lasted only five innings, giving up six runs—three on Cerv's first-inning homer.

The victory hoisted the A's past Boston into second place behind the American league-leading Yankees. The Red Sox lost, 3-2, at Detroit. Cleveland defeated Baltimore, 7-6, in 10 innings and the Chicago White Sox beat Washington, 7-3.

Jack Urban, a onetime Yankee farm hand, won his third. He walked none and struck out eight, three times fanning Mickey Mantle, whose hitting streak was ended at 14. The Yankees scored on Elston Howard's fourth-inning homer and got two in the seventh.

Williams Homers

A pair of unearned runs, on Frank Malzone's error, gave the Tigers the edge in the sixth. But Vito Valentinetti, recalled from the minors Saturday, had to strike out pinch hitter Gene Stephens after Bill Renna's against loser Hal Griggs.

Early Wynn (5-2) won his fourth in a row for the White Sox, but gave 10 hits and needed relief in the ninth. Four runs in the fourth, two scoring on an error and the other pair on Wynn's single, bagged it against loser Hal Griggs.

A bases-loaded walk by relief pitcher Billy O'Dell handed the Orioles their sixth straight defeat after J. W. Porter's first homer of the year had given the Indians a 6-6 tie in the ninth. Hoyt Wilhelm won his first in relief.

Central, West Tie for FRVC Relays Title

Tom Heuer's 5-6 the best Terror jump.

Oshkosh's Gene England, Jr., went 6-0 for the top individual effort.

A new record was also established in the medley relay. Sheboygan North's Jim Zabel, Bob Loeffler, Les Maercklein and Tom Cerull sped home in a nifty 3:40.8—two-tenths of a second below Manitowoc's mark, created in 1952.

A strong cool wind from the northwest helped to protect records in the running events.

East led the team point totals from the first compilation up to the final two events. With the 880-relay and the pole vault still to come in, the host Red Devils had 58 points to 52 for runner-up West, 48 for Central and 46 for the Terrers.

East Loses Lead

Thirds in the 880 relay and pole vault gave West 12 points and Central picked up 16 with a pair of seconds. The Devils could collect just four markers on a fourth in the pole vault and they lost the lead for the first, and most important, time.

Anywhere near a usual performance by the West pole vaulters would have given the Cats the meet.

Bill Snelling and Bob West—both of whom had been reaching 10 feet, 6 inches all season—went out at 9-6. Gary Just made 11-3.

The two Sheboygan schools each won three of the seven track events with East capturing the seventh, the shuttle hurdle relay. West and Appleton copped two and East one of the field contests.

Central boosted its total with a trio of seconds, but had just a single third, one fourth and no fifths. West won one second, four thirds, two fourths and two fifths.

AHS Disqualified

Appleton missed placing in only two events—the medley relay and the shuttle hurdles. AHS was disqualified in the medley when third runner Cal Kluesness took the baton from 220-man Dick Kloes out of the passing zone. In the hurdle race, No. 3 man Dick King fell flat just before passing to Howie Hamann and the Terrers were third (of three) in their heat.

The Terror mile relay unit of Dave LaViolette, Jerry Weber, Bob Roemer and Dick Kickland was second after LaViolette incurred a big deficit on the opening leg which his three teammates couldn't make up.

Appleton's other second came in the 2-mile relay where Bob Fritz, John Rowlands, Bill Simpson and Don Loker came home 60 yards back of victorious Sheboygan North. Running the anchor leg, Loker turned in an unofficial 2:05.7 half mile.

AHS' third was in the discus where Borum, Verkuilen and Hamann aggregated 366 feet, 11 1/2 inches. Winning West had 410 feet, 8 inches.

The summary:

Trusty at Jail Admits Thefts In Courthouse

Was Furnished Wine and Brandy By Former Prisoner

A Huber law prisoner and a former prisoner at the county jail are being held today awaiting charges after one of them rifled desks in three offices of the court house early this morning.

Sheriff Donald J. Heinritz said the Huber law prisoner, who was a trusty and acting as temporary janitor, entered the county clerk's, surveyor's and welfare department offices with a pass key he used while on duty in the courthouse annex. Between $15 and $18 in dimes was taken from County Clerk Mollie Pfeiffer's desk, three half dollars from the surveyor's office and a switchblade knife from the department of welfare office.

Face Charges

Sheriff's Lt. Jack Zuelzke, who made the investigation with Jailer Tony Van Wymer, said the trusty may be charged with breaking and entering. The other man will be charged with furnishing liquor to a prisoner, Zuelzke said.

Heinritz said the trusty was given wine and brandy by a prisoner who was released, Tuesday. The released prisoner came back to the jail to get his things and was asked by the trusty to bring him something to drink. The released man admitted bringing wine and brandy back to the trusty.

Zuelzke said the trusty went off duty as a janitor at 11 o'clock, went to a neighborhood bar and stayed there until closing time. Then he came back to the courthouse and went through the offices, he admitted in his statement. He had been furnished with a master key while acting as janitor.

The man also admitted breaking a window in the radio operator's office in the sheriff's department, but said it was done accidentally in an attempt to hide when he saw what he thought was a police car. Authorities speculated he broke the window in an attempt to make it appear the courthouse $14 in dimes at the time of his arrest, Zuelzke said.

The man was arrested after the Neenah Policeman Lawrence charges in statements to the Malou became suspicious of district attorney this morning, when he asked how to get. The trusty had been in jail a bus for Milwaukee at 3 o'clock for a long time on a non-susp in the morning. Neenah police port charge and was considered notified county authorities they ed trustworthy, Heinritz said.

Shares Show Rising Trend

Industrial Issues Up in Moderately Active Trading

New York (AP)—Industrials stepped forward, giving the stock market a slight rise early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

Steels, oils, aircrafts and missile-related stocks did well. Rails and utilities showed little movement. Leading stocks rose from fractions to about a point generally.

The news included President Eisenhower's statement he believes the recession has largely spent itself, a report from the federal reserve board that it sees signs of a leveling off in unemployment and an order for a speedup in missile and anti-submarine warfare programs by the house appropriations committee.

Republic Aviation was an early standout, rising around 2 points. Electronics shares related to the missile program also did well. Zenith was up more than 2 and Radio Corp. about a point. Raytheon was up a good fraction, as rumors were of another contract to the company.

Youngstown Sheet continued outstanding, adding about 2. U.S. Steel, Republic Steel and Lukens gained major fractions.

Kennecott was up about a point. Texas Co., Royal Dutch and Gulf Oil rose fractionally. Sunray preferred "A" kept a fractional advance. It opened at 25, up 1.

Motor shares did little. Chrysler slipped a fraction. American Airlines rose 1/2 to 18 1/2.

U.S. government bonds were firm in moderately active transactions.

Added Funds Released For Housing Program

Washington—The administration Tuesday released an additional $300 million to carry out the government's anti-recession housing program. Without the new allocation, the program would have run out of funds in about two weeks. The budget bureau made the money available to the federal national mortgage association to buy government-backed home loans. FNMA can commit itself to buy at par mortgages of not more than $13,500 on homes not yet under construction. In an effort to revive home building as a counter to the recession, congress made available up to $1 billion for FNMA purchases of FHA and VA mortgages.

Elinor Kraft Wins Pharmacy Award

Miss Elinor R. Kraft, 1727 N. Erb street, a senior at the University of Wisconsin, has been given the $300 Borden award for the school of pharmacy senior with the highest grade point average. The prize was awarded at the school's annual senior banquet.

City Starts Pest-Killing Fogging Work

The city's insect-killing fogging machine has begun operation. Deputy City Health Officer Claude N. Greisch said today. It is expected the machine, which shoots a fine mist of DDT-type insecticide into the air, will canvass the entire city to six times this season. Work commonly starts about 8 o'clock at night and ends about 2 o'clock in the morning. Greisch said there is no set route for the fogger, but that generally the machine will spray in outlying areas first, then cover the city's center and then cover the alleys, ravines, river banks and industrial areas. Establishing of routes is impossible, Greisch said, because wind velocity is a major factor in the effectiveness of the mist. A new attachment has been purchased which permits the machine operator, John Roemer, to spray inside catch basins. The attachment looks much like a hose. The intention this year, Greisch said, is to spray only the catch basins in the business districts. Last summer's pest-killing operation cost about $4,073.70. About 445 man-hours went into the work. Major expense was purchase of the DDT-dominated solution which, when heated, produces the mist. Last year

Baltimore Bar Still Wants Red Diplomat As One of Speakers

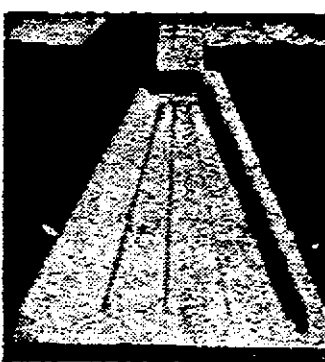

Baltimore—The Baltimore City Bar association has decided it still wants Soviet Ambassador Mikail A. Menshikov as a speaker for the annual meeting next month. The vote was 334-90 Monday after an hour of orderly but determined debate by more than 400 Baltimore lawyers jammed into a hotel meeting room. Menshikov was asked to be main speaker at the association's June 10 convention after invitations had been extended to Vice President Nixon, the Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen and New Jersey Gov. Robert Meyner. The association's executive committee was bombarded with protests when word got around that Menshikov had been asked, and the membership meeting resulted.
